ATLANTA WINS, BUT THE VICTORY COSTS $10,000

This City Is First Choice for National Good Roads Convention in 1911.

CONVENTION WILL COME IF ATLANTA GIVES $10,000

If Atlanta Does Not Subscribe Money Convention Will Be Offered to Denver---If Denver Refuses Money Milwaukee Will Get Chance---Milwaukee Ready to Put Up $10,000.

St. Louis, September 29.—(Special.)—It will require just $10,000 to secure the 1911 convention of the National Good Roads Association. This was decided upon by the convention committee tonight in session at the Planters' hotel, which selected Atlanta, Ga.; Denver, Col., and Milwaukee, Wis., as first, second and third choice, in the order named.

The rivalry all week between the delegates representing the three cities has been very keen, and strong pressure was brought to bear at the last moment for Atlanta. When the conditions were announced by the committee, the delegate representing Milwaukee jumped to his feet, and, waving his hat, said:

"Gentlemen, Milwaukee is ready now with the ten thousand."

Atlanta has thirty days in which to make good, if she wants the convention. Also, Denver gets second chance at it.

The convention here will complete its labors in the forenoon Friday, and adjourn very likely by 1 o'clock, following which the delegates will visit the manufacturing plants of St. Louis. This afternoon they were tendered a steamer ride on the Mississippi river,

CURSES HURLED AT CADET CORPS BY CAPT. LONGAN

Real Reasons for the Rebellion at West Point Academy Made Public.

"CORPS HAS GONE TO HELL, I'LL MAKE 'EM BUCK UP"

Alleged Longan Started Out at Academy With That Declaration---He Questioned Veracity of Cadets and Violated Tradition in Punishing Them.

Baltimore, September 29.—The exact statement of the cadets' side of the existing trouble at West Point Military academy as a consequence of which the entire corps is under restrictions, was given in a confidential letter from one of the cadets to a friend in this city, who said tonight:

"The cadets allege that Captain Longan started out at West Point by saying: 'This here corps has gone to hell. I'll make 'em buck up.'

"The trouble was cumulative first, on the target range, though it is by order that the cadets as a protection from the concussion of the guns, put cotton in their ears, Captain Longan accused them of stuffing their ears with cotton so that they would not hear his commands. The young men were surprised but said nothing.

Officer "Cursed Out" Cadets.

"Second, the cadets say that he 'cussed out' one of the finest men in the first class.

"Third, when Cadet Burt, first-class man, returned from his brother's funeral, he himself having appendicitis at the time, he went twice to Captain Longan's office to report. Each time Captain Longan was absent at the officer's club. Accordingly, Cadet Captain Bradley, of the corps, officer of the day and next in command, inspected Burt's baggage, took his money

WATER AVOIDED IN FIXING ROUTE OF STATE TOUR

Autoists in No Danger of Getting Stuck in the Water Next Month.

CLINCH COUNTY ROUTE "SURROUNDS" STREAMS

New Link Goes From Valdosta to Nashville, in Berrien County, Thence to Willacoochee, Pearson, and MacDonald, in Coffee County, and Through Waresboro to Waycross.

No one need have any fear about getting stuck in water on the round-the-state tour next month.

The route selected on Wednesday by the Valdosta board of trade representatives and by Frank Weldon, chairman of the tour, completely "surrounds" the streams of Clinch county, to use a local phrase.

The new link goes from Valdosta to Nashville, in Berrien county, thence to Willacoochee, Pearson and McDonald, in Coffee county, and through Millwood and Waresboro, in Ware county, to Waycross.

Low Country Avoided.

All the streams on this route are bridged and, as it runs around the west and north side of Clinch, the low country is avoided.

Another feature in favor of this route is that it avoids a long stretch of sand approaching Milltown, in the lower corner of Berrien. Sand is dreaded by auto drivers, and all who know that section of the country will be glad to learn of the change.

Lowndes has clayed the greater part of her link toward Nashville, and Berrien has a very fair country road leading into the county seat.

That is a fine sea island cotton coun-

TURN RASCALS OUT OF OFFICE, CRIES PARKER

Slogan Raised in Keynote Speech at Convention of New York Democrats.

BITTER ATTACK IS MADE ON THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Judge Parker Says Methods by Which Roosevelt Controlled the Republican Convention Were Disgraceful---Republican Machine Subservient to the Interests.

Rochester, N. Y., September 29.—The first session of the democratic convention today was a brief intermission in the serious business that has brought together here the delegates of sixty-one counties of New York state. This business was the selection of a candidate for the head of the ticket, and it promised to keep the leaders out of bed nearly all night.

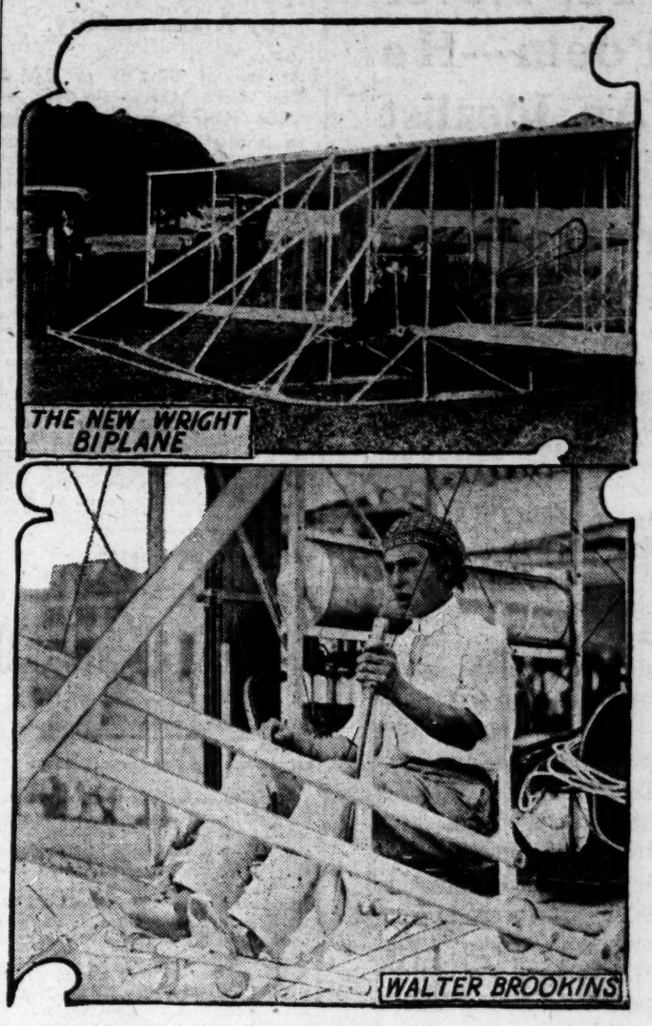

The convention came to order at 1:07 p. m., perfected a temporary organization, listened to a bitter arraignment by the temporary chairman, Alton B. Parker, of the republican administration in general and the practical ascendency of Theodore Roosevelt at Saratoga in particular, and then adjourned to wait on the judgments of the leaders. Tomorrow at 1 o'clock the convention will meet again in the hope of agreeing on a candidate selected in the meantime.

Murphy In Control.

Directly or indirectly, all questions of availability and fitness came ultimately before the triumvirate of which Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, is the dominating personality; Daniel Cohalen, the mouthpiece, and J. Sargent Cram, the advisor-in-chief. It is the admission of Norman E. Mack, chairman of the na-

BROOKINS AND WRIGHT BIPLANE IN WHICH GREAT FLIGHT WAS MADE

PLANT OF TIMES-DEMOCRAT IS DESTROYED BY FLAMES

New Orleans, September 30.—Practically the entire plant of The Times-Democrat Publishing Company was destroyed by fire, originating shortly before midnight in the paper warehouse on the first floor of the building. It was only a few moments before the entire structure was enveloped in flames, and several employees on the upper floors had narrow escapes. Other nearby buildings seemed doomed at one time, but the firemen succeeded in confining the blaze to The Times-Democrat and to the warehouse in the rear of the building, where the damage was not so great. Estimates place the loss of The Times-Democrat at more than $125,000, partly covered by insurance. The paper is one of the oldest and best-known in the south. All other local newspapers placed their plants at the disposal of The Times-Democrat immediately.

BROOKINS FLIES 192 1-2 MILES AND WINS $10,000

Aviator Voyages Through Air From Chicago to Springfield With Two Stops.

AMERICAN RECORD BROKEN BY FLIGHT OF BROOKINS

Fast Special Train Raced With the Aeroplane and the Latter Easily Won----Stops Were Made for Water, Oil and Gasoline---Thousands Watched Flight Across Illinois.

Springfield, Ill., September 29.—Aviator Walter Brookins alighted gracefully in the fair grounds here at 4:27 p. m. today, 7 hours and 12 minutes out from Chicago, after having sailed his Wright biplane the 192½ miles with two stops.

The stops were at Gilman, Ill., 75 miles from Chicago, at 11:30 a. m., and at Mount Pulaski, Ill., 163 miles from Chicago, at 5:20 p. m. The first stop was for water, oil and gasoline; the second for the same, and because his pump had broken and the engine became hot.

Broke Record and Won $10,000.

Brookins in his long sail broke the American long-distance continued flight record, and thereby won the $10,000 prize offered by The Chicago Record-Herald, which conducted the attempt.

In both places where Brookins alighted crowds gathered to stare at him. People rushed headlong to see what an aeroplane looked like at short range.

As Brookins swept up out of the field at Mount Pulaski, one of the small rubber-tired wheels, on which the aeroplane rolls in making headway before arising, struck a hammock and was wrenched off. Brookins, not knowing of the accident, rose to a height of 2,000 feet, and, heading for Springfield, swirled away from sight, leaving the Illinois Central aeroplane special train far behind.

This was the second engine the aviator had distanced in a fair race. Engineer W. F. Burt, who made the first attempt to defeat the air man, had to give up at Clinton, Ill.

Aeroplane Beat Special Train.

Brookins reached the fair grounds eight minutes before the station was reached by the Illinois Central fast special train. He made the dip to alight at 4:27 p. m., making 7 hours 12 minutes elapsed time from the start in Chicago. The actual flying time was 5 hours 44 minutes for the 192½ miles, an average flying rate of 33 miles an hour.

Brookins found some difficulty in

WORK ON SEWERS WILL BE RUSHED

Will Build Proctor Creek Disposal Plant First.

Bond Commission and Sewer Committee of Council Plan Perfection of Sewerage System---Several Pieces of Property Will Be Condemned.

Now for the perfection of Atlanta's sewerage system with the bond money. That was the slogan at the meeting of the bond commission and sewer committee of council yesterday when a conference was held with Sanitary Expert Rudolph Hering, who came from New York to submit a plan for one of the disposal plants.

The plan for the plant on Proctor creek was inspected and will be referred to council which meets next Monday. At the same time permission will be asked to advertise for bids at once. It is the intention to build the Proctor creek plant first, but the construction of the other two plants on Peachtree and Intrenchment creeks will begin in a short while.

The plan for the Proctor creek plant calls for an expenditure of about $105,000, but bids may reduce this cost.

Work Will Take a Year.

Dr. Hering estimated that it would take about a year to complete the plant and put it in operation.

It was decided to advertise for bids thirty days and to open them in the mayor's office on Tuesday, November 1. Just as soon as the commission and the committee can formulate a report on the bids, a recommendation will be made to council and there will be a called meeting of that body so as not to delay the matter.

Council will then accept one of the bids and the contract will be drawn up and properly signed. This will take a little time and the actual work on the plant will probably not begin until in December.

Alderman Pittman said he thought it would not take as long as twelve months to complete the work. Dr. Hering said he did not think the plant should be first put into operation in the winter, as the bacteria would not then get to work and the sewage could not be purified any way until in the spring. The mayor remarked that "everything in Atlanta worked the whole year round, even bacteria."

A motion was, however, adopted giving the contractor a year to build the disposal plant, and if he fails he must pay the city for all over-time. The contractor will be required to give a bond of 100 per cent of the cost of the work.

The Other Two Plants.

That disposed of the Proctor creek plant for the time being. The com-

HIS LORIMER VOTE NETTED HIM $1,000

Another Illinois Solon Swears He Was Bribed.

Representative Beckemeyer Tells of Voting for Lorimer for the Senate and Receiving $1,000--Beckemeyer Also Received $900 From "Jack Pot"

Chicago, September 29.—Representative H. J. C. Beckemeyer on the witness stand today before the Lorimer investigating committee testified that he received $1,000 after he had voted for Senator Lorimer and that the money was paid to him because of his vote for the junior senator from Illinois. Beckemeyer also said he received $900 from the "jack pot."

Beckemeyer was the third legislator in this hearing to declare he was given money for his vote in the senatorial election, Representative White and State Senator Haltslaw being the others. Counsel for Senator Lorimer brought out in cross-examination that Beckemeyer's vote for Senator Lorimer was not induced by the promise of any payment. Beckemeyer, who has been a witness in both the trials of Minority Leader Browne, testified that the $1,000 was paid to him by Browne, who said when he gave the witness a roll of bills, "Here is the Lorimer money."

Denied Being Promised Money.

Senator Frazier, of Tennessee, shortly before Beckemeyer left the stand, questioned him closely on all the incidents the witness had testified to and Beckemeyer in response to the senatorial quiz declared that prior to voting for Senator Lorimer he had not had any conversation with Browne or anyone in which anything was said about receiving any benefit for his vote for Senator Lorimer; that he had never had any dealings with Browne which would call for the payment of the money which he said was given him by Browne and that he took the money and used it for his own (Beckemeyer's) benefit and never gave it back.

"I understood when I got the money that it was for my vote for Senator Lorimer," said the witness.

On cross-examination Beckemeyer was questioned about conversations he had with Representative Michael Link, another democratic legislator who voted for Senator Lorimer and who is expected to be a witness before the committee tomorrow. In one of these conversations Beckemeyer testified that Link said to him, "My testimony does not fit with yours. I promised to vote for Senator Lorimer long before the election and did not receive any money for it."

On redirect examination Beckemeyer said he testified only once before the grand jury regarding the $1,000 which

STATE CHAIRMAN ASKED OPINION

As to Regularity of 8th District Committee.

Chairman Wright Has Received Letter From Eighth, but Refuses to State Nature of Reply---State Committee Not Called to Meet.

Newnan, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—When asked today concerning a letter written him by the chairman of the eighth district congressional committee, requesting an opinion as to which executive committee in the eighth district is regular, Hon. W. C. Wright, chairman of the state committee, stated that he had received the letter and had replied to it. He had not decided as to whether he would call the state committee together. Beyond stating that he had replied to the letter, Mr. Wright had nothing to say.

Athens, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Thomas S. Mell, chairman of the eighth district congressional executive committee—the committee named by the convention which nominated Hon. William M. Howard for congress—has addressed a communication to Hon. W. C. Wright, chairman of the state executive committee, asking his opinion as to which committee in the eighth district is regular—that named by the Howard or the Tribble faction. No reply has yet been received from the state chairman.

A rumor to the effect that Mr. Mell had asked the state chairman to pass upon the regularity of the nominations in the eighth district is denied by Mr. Mell, who holds that the regularity of the nomination is not a matter for the chairman of either the district or state executive committee to pass upon. Mr. Mell, at the instance of the district committee, however, addressed the communication to the state chairman on the phase of the situation as outlined above.

Mr. Mell states that Mr. Wright is at liberty to furnish his communication to the public if he sees fit so to do.

SEVENTY MILLION BACTERIA IN SAMPLE

Louisville, Ky., September 29.—Basing their contention on the report of a government chemist that a submitted sample contained 70,000,000 bacteria to one centimeter, federal authorities here today seized a large quantity of tomato catsup.

The condiment was found in a warehouse consigned to a prominent local firm, and came from a factory in Wheeling, W. Va.

$25,000 SAVED FOR ATLANTA

Livingston Gets a Cut on Old Postoffice.

Government Agrees to Reduce the Appraisement From $95,000 to $70,000---Colonel Livingston Thinks He Has Done Pretty Good Day's Work.

Washington, September 29.—(Special.) Atlanta will not be required to pay $95,000 for the old postoffice building, that being the price fixed by appraisers selected to condemn the property and put a value upon it. Today Congressman Livingston arranged with Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hilles for a reduction of the appraised value of the property from $95,000 to $70,000. Thus Colonel Livingston saves the city of Atlanta $25,000, which is regarded here as a pretty good day's work for a man who has just been turned down by his constituency for a renomination for congress.

ROOSEVELT TO STUMP FOR TICKET HE NAMED

Colonel Proposes to Make New York Campaign Very Lively.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., September 29.—Theodore Roosevelt returned early this evening from Saratoga with the scalp of the republican old guard of New York state added to his big collection of trophies. When he reached Troy, N. Y., last Monday on his way to Saratoga, he told the crowd at the station that he had returned from Africa with a lot of trophies, and when he came back from Saratoga he would have some more. The colonel made good his word by returning to his home town the generally accepted leader of the republican party in the state, and immensely proud of his new trophy.

Colonel Roosevelt went to bed early to get a good night's sleep, for he expects to have little rest until after election time. He was tired and hoarse when he reached Sagamore Hill, but in fine spirits.

He has placed his services at the disposal of the republican state committee, and hopes to make at least one speech in every county in the state. He will try to inject into the fight all the fire and vigor of his personality, and make the campaign one of the liveliest which New York state has seen in many a year.

Shot Wife and Child.

Philadelphia, September 29.—Following a night of quarreling with his wife at their home in Oakview, Delaware county, John Green, a carpenter, the father of nine children, shot and perhaps fatally wounded his wife and instantly killed their 13-months-old infant early today. A 16-year-old daughter narrowly escaped death. Green fled from the house, but was captured.

CRAFT SECRETS STRIPPED BARE

Startling Details of Robbery of Illinois Central.

A. C. Goodrich, Self-Confessed "Go-Between," Tells How Harriman, Rawn and Other High Officials Stole Thousands From Road.

Chicago, September 29.—A. C. Goodrich, a self-confessed "go-between," and Henry C. Ostermann, former president of the Ostermann Manufacturing Company, tried with each other before Municipal Judge Bruggemeyer today in stripping bare the secrets of the alleged combination which is charged with swindling the Illinois Central Railroad Company by car repair frauds.

Goodrich, like Ostermann, was placed on the stand as a witness for the prosecution. He described in detail methods which he said Illinois Central officials used to conceal their identity as stockholders in the Ostermann repair concern. In testifying yesterday Ostermann had said that certain payments to the railroad officials were made by checks to Goodrich.

Harriman Got the Money.

"The checks were made out in my name," said Goodrich. "Frank B. Harriman had asked me some time previously if I would agree to let him have checks made out in my name and accept certain payments for him. I agreed. I do not know what sources the checks came from, but I received a number of them. I know, however, that they were issued by this company of which I have been reading in the newspapers. I indorsed them and placed them to my private account in the Fort Dearborn National bank.

Photographs of $35,000 worth of checks signed by F. H. Niles, who is president of the Blue Island Car and Equipment Company, were then introduced by Attorney Fisher for the prosecution. Goodrich identified the indorsements on them as having been made by him. Niles went on the stand and several days ago testified that payments for Harriman were made to Goodrich. Most of the checks were paid on December 13, 1909.

Rawn Is On the Graft.

The name of Ira G. Rawn, late president of the Monon railroad, and former vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, was again brought into the proceedings when Goodrich testified that on December 18, 1909, he wrote a check for $10,000 to Ira G. Rawn, which was cashed by Rawn on December 21. The $10,000 check, he said, was in return for two $5,000 checks which had been sent to Goodrich on December 13, and were signed by Niles.

Ostermann was recalled to the stand when Goodrich had concluded his testimony.

In connection with the formation of the Memphis Car Repair Company, Ostermann told how stock was issued and to whom. Two new names, those of H. H. McCourt, general superintendent of the Illinois Central lines of the Ohio river, and W. S. King, general superintendent of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railway Company, were mentioned by Ostermann in this connection.

How Stock Was Issued.

"Stock was issued in certificates of 161 shares each in the Memphis Car Repair Company," said Ostermann. "This stock was divided among Ira G. Rawn, F. E. Harriman, J. E. Buker, W. S. King, H. H. McCourt, William Renshaw, J. M. Taylor and Secretary Ward, of the Memphis company."

Ostermann then declared that car repair companies paid certain Illinois Central officials a bonus as high as $25 a car for each one sent to them for repairs, and made "presents" of varying size to all grades of employees for vigilance in detecting and reporting "bad order cars." He declared that the amount charged on each car by the repair companies was regulated directly by the Illinois Central officials interested in the alleged grafting.

ADVERTISING TALKS

WRITTEN BY WILLIAM C. FREEMAN.

I probably have an average of ten requests a day to give FREE PUBLICITY to some man who writes in and says "your readers will undoubtedly be greatly interested in the enclosed 'item of news.'"

The "item of news" is usually a write-up about some firm or individual.

What a glorious lot of nice fellows we newspaper men are! How good we are to people! How generously we boost and boost, and then ofttimes scurry around to raise enough money to meet the weekly pay-roll! We give away our heads—also our space—and every time we print a puff we fool our readers.

Some newspapers, however, print ALLEGED NEWS ARTICLES that are paid for that do not carry an advertising mark of any kind. They also fool the reader.

The free puff and the paid-for reader, that nobody knows is paid for, are both a source of annoyance to readers of newspapers. Besides, in these days, READERS LOOK TO THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS for ATLANTA. NEW YORK. PARIS.

A Man May Be An Idealist and Yet Never Write a Poem---He MUST Be An Idealist To Manage the Right Kind of Store.

Yesterday we wrote: "We have an ideal of what a store ought to be.

Knowing the limitations of our little finite minds, we are sure our ideal, in the richness of its humanity and the honesty of its economy, will never be attained. BUT WE GET PLEASURE OUT OF TRYING.

Raphael never painted a picture that completely satisfied the eye of the artist. Every beauty of pigment, every triumph of brush communicated a deeper meaning to his soul and gave him a fresh starting point.

Scientist or theologian, worthy the name, has his heart set on a hundred hidden truths for every one he holds up.

Everything in the world is experimental—tentative. NOTHING IS FINISHED. So far as it applies to man and his work, the word "perfection" might be lifted from the language.

Men of creative genius—men of imagination know how shabby their achievements are in comparison with the achievements of tomorrow. But they keep dreaming their dreams and seeing their visions—working, working for the strengthening and enlightening of the world.

Our ideal has little in common with the modern department store. It cuts their traditions at right angles.

The forces of our ideal store will not be organized for the purpose of coining the vitality of employees into dollars—absorbing their energy for our own enrichment.

"A girl next me who doesn't sell half as much as I do gets $12.00 a week and I have only $9.00." —See Working-Girls' Budgets in current issue of McClure's Magazine.

Such inequalities and injustices couldn't exist under our system. Each salesperson draws a nominal salary, and every cent she sells in excess of a stipulated amount yields him or her a commission—A FAIR COMMISSSION THAT IS GIVEN STRAIGHT.

As we approach our ideal, the department store idea is left further and further behind.

Much of the pleasure derived from the business is found in the fact that we give honest, congenial and remunerative employment to our people.

Did you ever read the rules of a department store—the rules formulated for the guidance of employees? They are cold as ice and hard as iron.

Individually, the clerks may be weak as laths and frail as tissue paper—but, collectively, they are cohesive and tenacious—supplying activities that challenge credence and admiration.

There can be no real happiness in the MAIN OFFICE IF MISERY STARES AND HUNGER STALKS BEHIND THE COUNTERS.

By limiting the size of the store, we limit the number of employees required. In this way, all work under our own eyes—are practically directly under our personal observation and command, instead of superintendents, some of whom might indulge in various forms of oppression and tyranny.

Our people cheerfully defer to our will in all matters of store policy. Beyond that, we do not expect them to subordinate their personal actions to our opinions.

All this is written as friends write of friends, not as champions of a different social caste.

We believe that our theory, put into practice, makes men and women of character, instead of men and women of routine.

The apathy of a mass living under general rules of conduct is pathetic. Ambition is atropied—buried under layer on layer of habit.

We do all we can to develop the vigor of the individual—to raise men and women from the sterile, stunted class and make them solid, intelligent, reliable, self-helping.

132,685 PEOPLE IN BIRMINCHAM

Marvelous Growth Made by Alabama City.

Increase of 94,270 or 245.4 Per Cent Over 38,415 in 1900--New Orleans First City in South and Second Place Probably for Atlanta.

Washington, September 29.—The population of Birmingham, Ala., is 132,685; an increase of 94,270, or 245.4 per cent, over 38,415, in 1900.

The incease shown by Birmingham is the largest thus far reported, as the city has more than tripled in population since 1900. The area of Birmingham is about 42 square miles.

It is conceded that New Orleans, with her 339,085 inhabitants, will hold first place among southern cities, but there is great interest as to which city will be second. In 1900, Memphis, with 102,320, was second, but it is believed that Atlanta, with her 154,839, in 1910, has outstripped Memphis, and will rank next to New Orleans. The 1910 figures for Memphis have not yet been announced.

refreshments being served aboard the boat.

The elimination of the dust evil and the best oils for use on roadways constituted the principal topics of discussion during the morning session today. Several interesting papers were read in this connection, especially those of Professor Arthur H. Blanchard, of Providence, R. I. Austin B. Fletcher, of San Diego, Cal., and Harold Parker, of Massachusetts.

The new convention committee for the 1911 meeting will be selected by the delegates at Friday's session.

Recommendations to the resolutions committee were made at this morning's session of the convention. These included ways and means of obtaining federal appropriations for the construction of public highways and main trunk roads in cooperation with state aid, and organization of bodies to control the work. The committee will report tomorrow.

news about enterprises or individuals.

Sometimes advertisers do things that have a real news value. When they do, give space to it—freely and generously; but announcements of Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer openings or special sales should never get a place in the news columns. Their place is in the ADVERTISING COLUMNS, and only there.

My observation is that the newspaper that's liberal with its puffs and indifferent about its responsibility to its readers in the matter of not marking a paid reader as an advertisement, is usually looked upon by all advertisers as being of little, if any, value to them, and, usually also, readers do not have confidence in it.

I think it's fine for a newspaper to do all it can to BOOST THE COMMUNITY in which it is printed—TO PRINT INTERVIEWS WITH BIG MEN whose views are worth printing, but it is not good business, nor is it fair to readers, to give a write-up to a man just because he spends money for advertising.

The PRESS AGENT comes in again and again, you know. He is always knocking at the door. It will be great when all newspapers refuse to let him in.

"WITH BIRMINGHAM'S AREA ATLANTA WOULD HAVE 200,000"

City Engineer Clayton

The population of Birmingham, just given out by the census bureau at Washington, as compared with that of Atlanta, is causing some well-posted Atlantans to look up figures showing what Atlanta's population would have been had this city extended its limits to the extent Birmingham did.

The Alabama city recently took in everything in sight, until it covered a space of forty-two square miles. Atlanta extended its limits so as to only take the suburbs that were adjacent to and virtually a part of the city. Atlanta's extension gave it a total area of a fraction over twenty-five square miles.

Now Birmingham, with its forty-two square miles, has a population of 132,685, when she had 38,415 ten years ago. Atlanta, with its rightful area of twenty-five square miles, has o population of 154,839, when its population ten years ago was 89,872.

City Engineer Clayton, who made a careful study of the extension of Atlanta's limit, when a proposition was made to make the limits much larger than they are now so as to take in East Point, Kirkwood, Decatur and other territory, has estimated that Atlanta had made its area forty-two square miles, the population of the city would have been over 200,000.

The city engineer says:

"The exact area of Atlanta in 25 2-3 miles. To reach out like Birmingham did and take in forty -two miles, we would have nearly seventeen more square miles from which to draw a population. That 'reach-out' would, in my opinion, if we went in the righ direction, run our population over the 200,000 mark, for we would take in such large towns as Decatur, East Point, College Park, Hapeville and Kirkwood, with a thickly populated territory between them and Atlanta. If Atlanta had done like Birmingham, and covered forty-two square miles, the population of our city would probably have gone over 200,000."

"SNAP BEAN FARM" TO BE PLAYGROUND FOR CHILDREN

To establish a kindergarten in connection with the purchase of "The Wren's Nest" as a public memorial to Joel Chandler Harris, and to make of "Snap Bean Farm" a beautiful park or playground, furnishing shade and recreation for the children of West End, is the latest interesting development announced by the ladies of the Uncle Remus Memorial Association in connection with the patriotic work they are striving to accomplish.

This Uncle Remus memorial movement is one in which the children have been peculiarly interested from the first, but the above announcement should redouble that interest and make it still more active. When the memorial work is accomplished it is the hope of the ladies that they will be able to say that the children of Atlanta and the south have been potent factors in helping bring about its success.

The ladies of the association hope to see similar clubs organized among the children in Atlanta and other southern cities. They believe that the coming address of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt on the night of October 8, at the Auditorium-Armory, will be a splendid occasion to arouse a keener local interest among the children, and parents are urged, where they can do so, to bring the little ones to the lecture on that occasion. Tickets continue on sale at the Cable Piano Company. Messrs. C. B. Bidwell and P. C. Meyer, of the American Audit Company, are taking a personal interest in the handling of the tickets. Mail orders will receive the same prompt and careful attention as personal applications.

WEEKLY ORGAN RECITAL DRAWS LARGE AUDIENCE

The regular Thursday night organ recital by Dr. Percy J. Starnes at the Auditorium last night presented a program that was what might well be called "popular," but in no degree cheap, and the manner of its presentation held the constantly compelling force of masterly musicianship.

The size of the audience indicated the growing realization on the part of music lovers, of the rare pleasure open to them at nominal cost once a week and a cordial enjoyment was evident. The Thursday night audiences are perhaps not so demonstrative as those on Sunday afternoons, but their enjoyment is very apparently no less intense.

Probably the most popular number last night was the introduction to the third act of "Lohengrin" and the wedding music, although its enveloping melody and romance were no more brilliant than the vivid military march by Gounod, and the beautiful serenade by Brags wooed the whole audience to rapt delight.

The ballet music by Delibes was typically full of brightness and charm, and a concert overture by Hollins provided the pure organ interest.

TERRIFIC HAIL STORM IN BIBB COUNTY

Many of Hailstones Were As Large as Guinea Eggs. Cotton Crop Hurt.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—Hailstones, many as large as a guinea's egg, and reaching an average depth of five inches on the ground, accompanied by a terrific wind, devastated an area of one and a half square miles in the neighborhood of Lorraine, this county, this afternoon, stripping the cotton stalks of both leaves and bolls and beating the corn crop to shreds.

No accurate estimate of the loss in money could be secured tonight, but it is known that it will mount into the thousands of dollars. Hundreds of trees were blown down.

Big Real Estate Deal.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) H. Horne, prominent real estate dealer, today bought of Mrs. Wallace McCaw the Edward Comer place on Orange street, formerly the home of W. Jordan Massee. The price paid was $21,000. The property is in the prettiest residence section of Orange street, and is a pretty home. The place is bought as an investment, and will probably go to some other citizen.

Are You Half Sick?

Just sick enough to feel heavy heeled, lazy and listless, to have no appetite, to sleep badly; just sick enough to feel restless and nervous, and to have what you eat feel like lead in your stomach; not sick enough to take to bed or call a doctor, but just sick enough to not know what to do.

Ninety-nine times out of one hundred these symptoms are all caused by the stomach, bowels, liver and digestive organs. Now, all this can be remedied in one night by taking Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills.

Anyone suffering from chronic constipation, biliousness, sick headache or liver complaint can tone up the entire system, elevate the spirits and again make life really worth living by a single week's use of Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills. You will have a good appetite and sleep well. They are Nature's laxative, entirely different from anything you have ever taken before. Physicians use and recommend. They form no habit. You should always keep them on hand. These little Vegetable Pills will ward off many ills.

MORTUARY

Benjamin Dunlap.

The body of Benjamin Dunlap, who died Wednesday, will be held in Patterson's chapel until relatives are heard from.

Tom Carroll.

Tom Carroll, aged 81 years, a leader of the Clan O'Hara, a traveling band of horse dealers, died in Sandersville, Ga., Wednesday night. The body was brought to Atlanta and placed in Greenberg, Bond & Bloomfield's chapel to await the annual burial services of the clan, which takes place every April. This makes the fourth member of the O'Hara Clan whose body has been placed this year in Greenberg, Bond & Bloomfield's private morgue.

Cecil Bedford.

Cecil, the 3-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Bedford, died suddenly Wednesday night at the family residence, 5 Bennett avenue. No one was with the child at the hour of its decease, so Judge Edgar H. Orr, in the absence of Coroner Donehoo, held an inquest, the jury turning in a verdict of death fom natual causes. The funeral will be held in Harry G. Poole's chapel at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The interment will be in Hollywood cemetery.

Miss Patterson, Moultrie.

Moultrie, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Miss Lizzie Patterson, daughter of Judge A. D. Patterson, died here this afternoon after a lingering illness. The funeral will occur tomorrow morning, interment taking place at Pleasant Grove church.

Vannutelli in Washington.

Washington, September 29.—Welcomed at the Union station by a throng of several thousand of Catholics, half of whom were school children, Cardinal Vincezo Vannutelli, who represented Pope Pius X at the international eucharistic congress of Montreal, arrived in Washington today.

Mrs. Ora Lee Habgood.

The funeral of Mrs. Ora Lee Hobgood will be held in the residence, 267½ Peters street, at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The interment will be in West View cemetery.

G. W. Harmond.

G. W. Harmond, aged 40 years, died at the residence in Hapeville yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He is survived by his wife and seven small children and by his mother, Mrs. F. J. Roberts, of Chattanooga, Tenn. The body will be taken this morning to Chattanooga for funeral and interment.

William H. Mills.

The body of William H. Mills, of Jacksonville, Fla., who died Wednesday night while on a train en route for this city, was taken last night from Patterson's chapel and carried to Live Oak, Fla., where the funeral and interment will occur today.

Mrs. T. H. Strother, Washington.

Washington, Ga., September 29.—Mrs. T. H. Strother, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Fanning, of Washington, died late Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, after a brief illness with malarial fever. Mrs. Strother was Miss Nellie Fanning before her marriage about six months ago to T. H. Strother, of East Wilkes. The funeral occurred this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Bethel church, the services being conducted by Rev. A. B. Sanders.

Students on "Silence" Strike.

New York, September 29.—Emulating the example of the West Point cadets, a "silence strike" was inaugurated today by the pupils of the Bayonne, N. J., high school. Not a word could the teachers draw from the scholars when lessons were undertaken. The board of education of the town is wrestling with the problem of how to break the strike, as the students declare it will be continued as a protest against the lengthening of the school day by an hour.

VOTERS FORSAKING SMITH, SAYS WATSON

Editor Denies Report Detectives Are Guarding Him in Atlanta.

"Voters who supported Hoke Smith in the recent primary are forsaking him now by the thousands. Joe Brown will be Georgia's next governor. The people will demand that he serve again, and he will not refuse."

This was the gist of a terse interview given out last night by Thomas E. Watson upon his return to Atlanta from Marietta, where he addressed a big crowd on the political situation. He said he was pleased with the meeting.

Mr. Watson was amused by the report that he was being guarded while here by four detectives.

"I was accompanied by four of my friends," said Mr. Watson. "They were Major Charles E. McGregor, of Warrenton; Jim McGregor, traveling agent of The Jeffersonian; Lucius Burton, agent for the paper at Crawfordville, and G. W. Seals, of Atlanta. I am not afraid of anything. The report that I am being guarded by detectives is silly."

Mr. Watson spent the night at the Kimball. Friday morning he goes to Carrollton, Ga., to address the people there.

"Everywhere I go," said Mr. Watson, "I find people terming the way Hoke Smith was nominated an outrage. Thousands of men who voted for him this last time are turning back on him."

BAPTISTS TO AID ORPHANS SUNDAY

On next Sunday a number of the Baptist churches of the city will take up collections for the benefit of the Baptist Orphans' Home at Hapeville.

Especial interest is being taken in this work by the West End Baptist church. In cards which have been printed and sent to the members of the congregation, A. R. Colcord, superintendent of the Sunday school sets forth the aim of the church for the day as "Attendance 700, collection $300."

TWO GATHERINGS HELD FOR WINN

Activity and enthusiasm continue to feature the gatherings of the various ward Winn clubs throughout the city, and Mr. Winn's campaign managers express themselves as being more than satisfied with the steady progress that is being made. Two large meetings were held last night, one of the Fifth Ward Winn Club, at 807 Marietta street, and one of the Second Ward Club at the headquarters, 12½ West Alabama street.

Five Winn meetings will be held in the city today. At noon Courtland Winn will address the employees at the Western and Atlantic shops. The Eighth Ward Club will assemble at headquarters, 12½ West Alabama street, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. At the same place the Tenth Ward Club will gather at 8 o'clock in the evening. Two meetings will be held in the evening in the third ward, one at 212 East Georgia avenue and one at 80 Broyles street.

The meeting of Winn enthusiasts from the eighth ward in the afternoon at headquarters will be for the purpose of organization.

The membership of the Young Men's Winn Club, which was organized at headquarters Wednesday night, has been greatly increased. All day Thursday telegrams, notes and telephone calls were received asking that the senders' name be enrolled in the roster of the club. Another meeting will be held early next week.

W. C. T. U. IN AUGUSTA CONVICTS ZELLER

Augusta, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Theo. Zeller, an Augusta saloon keeper, was tried and found guilty of violating the state prohibition law in the city court here today. Zeller is one of three defendants against whom warrants were issued by members of the local W. C. T. U., upon affidavits made by Rev. J. W. Ham, of Atlanta, at the time of the lecture upon "Civic Righteousness," by Dr. Len Broughton here on July 11 last. Mr. Ham, in his affidavits, declared that he purchased liquor in bottles at the Metropole and Zeller's, and at the Albion hotel he bought a drink, part of which he drank to see if it was whisky.

Other Cases to Be Heard.

Mr. Ham and Deputy Marshal Murray, who testified as to the character of the revenue license issued to Zeller, were the only witnesses for the state. The defendant made a statement in his own behalf, in which he denied the allegations. The cases against the Metropole and the Albion hotel will probably be heard tomorrow. There are in all thirteen cases for violation of the prohibition law on the court docket. I. Levy was found guilty today, also. The cases against Zeller, the Metropole and the Albion are the ones which resulted directly from the campaign begun by the W. C. T. U. early in the summer.

BROOKINS FLIES 192 1-2 MILES

alighting, because of the inadequate policing at the fair grounds, and, although he arrived over the grounds at 4:22, it was five minutes later before he could land.

The crowd surged about him, threatening to crush the curious bird machine, till he had to make a personal appeal to get the throng back.

"Only Staying Up," Says Brookins.

Asked about the flight, he said:

"Why, it was nothing only staying up; that's all. I merely took time—more than usual—and that's about the only difference from a practice flight. I knew I could make it.

"It was one of the prettiest flights I ever made. The country between Chicago and here is delightful. Everywhere I was flying low enough—and I went as low as 300 feet several times—I could see the people staring up at me from almost every acre. There must have been three-fourths of a million looking up at me.

"My arms are tired, if course, and it will be quite a strain, because I had to watch all the while, but I am good for the same thing right now, if necessary."

"I Told You So," Says Wright.

Wilbur Wright's only comment was: "As the woman says, 'I told you so.'"

Later, after the aeroplane had been stored away in a tent, Mr. Wright added to his terse remark. He said:

"There was never a time when I I felt this way. There was a strong I felt this way. There as a strong wind, and right in his face for most of the way, so that he had to use so much more gasoline and oil that he had to stop.

"It was only the broken pump, however, heating up his engine that made it necessary for him to alight at Mount Pulaski. Otherwise he would have gone the whole distance to Springfield from Gilman.

"The machine will go for any distnce; the only difference between this and a practice flight is that the operator has to work longer. He flew better the farther he went because he had used up more gasoline and was lighter.

"I think this has shown very conclusively that the aeroplane is a successful navigator of the air, and you who followed the machine from Chicago in the train with me probably feel as confident of it now as I do.

Race Between Airship and Train.

"Only water, oil and gasoline stood between Brookins and a continuous sustained flight between Chicago and Springfield.

"Never was there a prettier race, say those who witnessed a part of it, than that between the special flyer on the Illinois Central, which, with right-of-way over everything, attempted to beat the air man and the steady flyer which kept on above, always close by. Sometimes when Brookins had to rise to get above rough country currents, the craft drew back behind the racing special, but when the glide came again, he forged ahead and stayed there."

Two engines were put on the train, each one of them running about half the distance, but neither was ahead when the stops were made.

Aboard the train, which carried many passengers as well as the airman's friends, all was excitement continually.

Every window was filled with heads peering up into the sky.

At the First Stop.

The first stop, at Gilman, Ill., for oil, was made by arrangement. Here Brookins alighted in a wind-swept cornfield, and had no difficulty in pushing the machine out into the open ground. Then he waited fourteen minutes for the train to come up.

At Mount Pulaski he showed no more concern. He was now nearing his destination, and soon after he was up he saw the gilded top of the dome building at the fair grounds, and, ignoring his teacher's instructions to fly only half an hour because of the broken pump, he aimed for the dome; his machine gave an audacious flirt of its tail-like rudder, and then he soared to the fair grounds with no more stops. He sailed high, about 2,000 feet up, until ready to make the daring swoops and curves with which he landed safely.

The cheer which greeted his arrival swelled into a noisy ovation.

As soon as he had his machine stored and guarded, he went down to the city to keep his "luncheon appointment," as he termed it, and the American record for continuous flight, previously held by Glenn H. Curtiss at 141 miles, was set at 192½ miles, Brookins, in a Wright biplane, holder.

Telegrams of Congratulations.

At the aviation headquarters, half a hundred telegrams were awaiting the sky mariner. They came from all parts of the United States.

At 8 p. m. Brookins was met officially by John Crebbs, president of the fair association, and the air man turned over to the official a message penned by H. H. Kohlsaat, of The Chicago Record-Herald, reading:

"To the President of the State Fair Association: With the compliments of H. H. Kohlsaat, via the first air line from Chicago to Springfield."

Brookins announced this evening that he would make exhibition flights tomorow afternoon at the fair grounds, when a squadron of cavalry will keep back the crowds that today threatened to destroy his machine.

Saturday afternoon he will race Barney Oldfield for a mile about the track, Oldfield driving his 200-horse power racing automobile. Brookins said today he expected to beat the veteran automobile driver.

he said was given him by Browne and that later he explained, but did not change his testimony, and that it was the same as he today told to the investigating committee.

Held By Officers for Long Time.

Many of the questions of the counsel related to Beckemeyer being in the custody of an officer of the state's attorney's office for a long period and Senator Heyburn expressed surprise.

"Can it be possible," said the senator, "that there is a law which authorizes an officer to keep a man in custody without any charge or indictment against him?"

Attorney Hanecy declared there was no such law and said he was prepared to argue that the witness had been under duress. In response to a later question from Attorney Austrian, Beckemeyer said he was in custody at his own request, as he had told the state's attorney he would like to have someone to protect him and that he did not consider himself under duress or restraint.

John W. Dennis, of East St. Louis, at one time a partner of Representative White, testified that in June, 1909, White paid a number of bills and that prior to a trip to Chicago White had no money and after his return at about that time he had a considerable sum.

The sergeant-at-arms of the committee reported that a number of witnesses subpoenaed could not arrive until morning and the session adjourned until tomorrow.

Dr. Oates Succeeds Bush.

Montgomery, Ala., September 29.—(Special.)—Acting Governor Henry B. Gray today appointed Dr. William Henry Oates, a physician of Mobile, to succeed the late Dr. Charles F. Bush, as state inspector of jails, cotton mills and almshouses. The only provision made in the appointment is that Clerk Adams be retained in his position, though any other changes in the department may be made at the discretion of Dr. Oates.

CHINA ON VERGE OF REVOLUTION

Lives of Foreigners Are Reported in Danger.

Slogan Is "China for the Chinese"---Army and Navy of the United States Prepared to Protect American Interests in Yellow Kingdom.

Washington, September 29.—China is declared to be on the verge of another upheaval similar to the Boxer uprising, and the lives of foreigners are in jeopardy. Advices received here recently from government officials in China express the belief that an outbreak at any time would not surprise them. The state department has instructed officials to maintain a close watch on the internal conditions.

All through the summer months there have been mutterings of discontent in some of the Chinese provinces, due to the rice famine, dynastic difficulties and dissatisfaction over acts of the Pekin government as to foreign investments in China.

General Feeling of Unrest.

Good harvests mitigated to some extent the growth of the situation, but there is still a general feeling of unrest, according to personal letters received here from men on duty in that quarter.

The arm and navy are prepared for any emergency, but their readiness is solely a precautionary measure, it is said, and should not be taken as an indication of immediate danger.

Authentic advices from those charged with keeping in touch with the conditions indicate that the only thing lacking to parallel today's situation with that preceding the Boxer troubles, which drew into China the American forces, as well as those of other nations, is the matter of organization, and that it only needs a leader to effect that.

China for Chinese.

Boston, Mass., September 29.—No reports of unrest in China have been received recently at the headquarters here of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions.

The unrest in China, in the belief of the American board officials, is the result of a newly-awakened national feeling among the Chinese people. The slogan of an ever-increasing element, "China for the Chinese," has been heard throughout the empire, and the anti-foreign feeling is not directed against the missionaries as Christians, but rather because they are foreigners.

The American boards' mission stations in China are divided among three districts, Foo Chow, South China and North China.

Shot for Oyster Pirate.

Washington, September 29.—Overshooting his mark, some member of the crew of the Virginia state police boat, James River, who was aiming, as he thought, at oyster pirates lawlessly dredging near Colonial Beach yesterday, shot William E. Raab, of this city, so seriously that he lies today in a critical condition in a hospital here.

BROKERS RAIDED BY GOVERNMENT

Charge Made of Using the Mails to Defraud.

Seven Members of Firm of Scheftels & Co., of New York, Held in Heavy Bail---Police Searching for George Graham Rice, Head of Company.

New York, September 29.—Following one of the most sensational raids ever engineered by federal authorities in this city, directed today against the firm of B. H. Scheftels & Co., curb brokers in Broad street, seven members of the company, including B. H. Scheftels, its president, were held in heavy bail this evening for hearing October 5 on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

Tonight search is being made by the police and by government inspectors for George Graham Rice, whose real name is said to be Simon Herzig, the originator of the race track bettipping system, who is declared to be the real head of the concern.

At the time of the raid here, announcement was made from Washington that warrants had been issued for the managers of the company's branch offices in Boston, Providence, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago and Milwaukee.

Sold "Fake" Mining Securities.

According to the agents of the department of justice, the Scheftels company has been engaged in promoting the sale of mining securities of doubtful value in all parts of the country. Estimates of the firm's dealings are placed as high as $5,000,000.

The seven men arraigned here are B. H. Scheftels, Charles F. Belser, secretary of the company; George T. Sullivan, Clarence McCormick, John Delaney, William T. Seagrave and Charles B. Stone. Warrants for sixteen men had been issued, but the others, including Rice and Charles S. Herzig, who is said to be his brother, eluded the raiders.

Rice had been in his offices earlier in the day, but left before the officers swooped down upon the place.

A surety company gave bail in the sum of $15,000 for Scheftels, $3,500 for Seagrave, $3,000 for Stone and $2,500 for Delaney. Belser, McCormick and Sullivan were committed to the Tombs, as bondsmen were not forthcoming. While the hearing was set for October 15, it is expetced the federal grand jury will take action before that time.

Carried on Large Business.

The firm of B. H. Scheftels & Co. was organized about two years ago, and had conducted a large business, mainly through an extensive advertising propaganda. Mining specialties were its chief offering to investors. A weekly newspaper was published to reach clients, and a corps of thirty-five stenographers is said to have been required to attend to its correspondence. After the arrests today two patrol wagon loads of papers, books and memoranda were seized by the inspectors for examination.

Another charge against the company by George Scarborough, the government inspector who made the complaint, is that it had resorted to what he called a "crooked bucketshop scheme."

He declared the concern had charged customers 6 per cent on margins and had collected commissions without rendering any service in return. The difference between the actual price of stocks on the curb market and fictitious quotations given customers, Scarborough also alleges, was converted to the company's use. In his complaint the defendants are accused of attempting to defraud William A. Childs, Charles H. Slack and Dr. D. J. Szymanski.

The raid today was made while the curb market was in full swing and had attracted much attention. Thousands rushed to the scene, and police reserves had to be called out to clear a path for the patrol wagons.

HOBBLE SKIRT CAUSES INJURY TO MISS HUNT

Knoxville, Tenn., September 29. While descending the steps f the main building at the Appalachian Exposition, arrayed in a hobble skirt, Miss Helen Hunt, of Kentucky, fell and was painfully injured. She was taken to the emergency hospital, on the exposition grounds, and later was able to be removed to the city.

LADIES OF TRINITY SEWING FOR ORPHANS

The ladies of Trinity church, under the direction of Mrs. O. H. Jones, passed a busy and enjoyable day at Trinity yesterday, making aprons and dresses for the children at Decatur. It was a beautiful sight to see about fifty ladies doing this noble work. They had some nice gifts of good winter underwear and other things. They will send the orphans a box with probably 200 garments.

The ladies of Smyrna and Austell, Crawford and several other churches in Atlanta and all through Georgia were busy on work day, and the boxes from these have already begun to come in. A number of splendid gifts have come in to the Orphans' home since the last report was made. Covington, $189.34; Milledgeville, $103.03; Lafayette, $100; Energy, $24.28; Goggansville, $27.26; Dahlonega, $21; Pleasant Grove, in Baldwin, $27.35; Tallapoosa, $25.84; Second church, Rome, $55.04; Douglasville, $20; Rockmart, $32.84; Social Circle, $38.90; Roopville, $25.70; Prospect, in Rockdale, $26.05. Total amount raised up to the present is about $5,000.

ABOUT OUR LADIES' SHOES at MUSE'S

We have come to a day of correctness of Shoe Styles for Women--when the Shoe conforms to the gown as the gown to the occasion. The requirements for a season's wear are varied. A rapidly growing outlet proves that we are meeting all these requirements in our

Ladies' Shoe Department

It was a day of the introduction of the best in shoes--shoes of a quality of good wear and good style, when this department for Ladies' Shoes was opened at MUSE'S.

The department, being new, makes it imperative that the shoes are all this season's make; and that they are indeed beautiful and appropriately designed a visit will testify.

The most discriminating woman who calls will find here, a pair of shoes suitable for each of her prettiest gowns for formal wear, for evening, for street, for home wear.

All styles, in all fitting materials. All sizes and all widths from triple A to E.

WORK ON SEWERS WILL BE RUSHED

mission and committee then took up the plants to be built on Peachtree and Intrenchment creeks and a motion was adopted instructing Dr. Hering to deliver to the city plans for these two plants as early as possible. He said he could have them ready within six weeks.

When these plans are received they will be acted upon at once, so that the work on all three plants will be carried on practically at the same time.

A motion made by W. H. Terrell was adopted which urged the city government to push as rapidly as possible the work of securing the rights-of-way on the three routes for the intercepting sewers so that the sewers can be laid.

On a suggestion from the mayor a resolution was adopted which called for the use of the sewers as fast as laid so the sewage can be carried a part of the way and turned into the branches as the worked progressed.

About the Rights-of-Way.

The city engineer stated that the right-of-way for the Proctor creek sewer had all been secured except three lots, and these were now to be condemned through the courts. On the Peachtree creek route several property owners had to be dealt with. The survey on the Intrenchment creek route had not been completed.

As the city can under the law deposit the money with the court in a condemnation proceeding and secure at once the property; this will be done, so there will be no delay in laying the intercepting sewers.

The following committee was appointed to take up the details of the work for the laying of sewers as the building of the disposal plants: F. A. Quillian, Councilman Craig Cofield, City Engineer Clayton, City Attorney Mayson and Alderman F. A. Pittman.

BOOKKEEPER DIES RESULT OF INJURY

James F. Esterling Was Shot by Idle Cigarmakers Two Weeks Ago.

Tampa, Fla., September 29.—James F. Esterling, the bookkeeper for Bustillo Brothers & Diaz, cigar manufacturers, who was shot as he stepped from a car in front of the factory two weeks ago, died at the Gordon Keller Memorial hospital at midnight as a result of the wound. The shot which inflicted the fatal wound was fired from a crowd of idle cigar workers, who are on strike.

The wounding of Mr. Esterling is the direct cause for the execution of the two Italians a week ago, Angelo Albano, one of the victims, being charged with firing the shot.

LADIES' MORNING JACKET.

This is one of the neatest and most desidable of morning jackets. The design is made with special thought of bordered materials, as the edges of the neck, the cuffs and belt are straight, so the border of the material can be effectively used.

This pattern is cut in five sizes, 32 to 40 bust measure. Size 36 requires 3 2-3 yards of 30 inch bordered material, or 3 2-3 yards of 27 inch plain material. Price of pattern 470 is 10 cents.

ATLANTA LAW SCHOOL OPENS WITH SPLENDID ATTENDANCE

The Atlanta Law school opened its doors yesterday with a lecture by Justice Joseph Henry Lumpkin on "The Study of Law." Lawyers of the city, alumni of the school, as well as the student body, were present at the opening.

Over seventy students were enrolled on the first day, and when the registration is finished, it is expected that the attendance will be the largest in this section of the country.

While most of the student body is drawn from the state of Georgia, there are quite a few from various parts of the United States, representing twelve states and including two from Porto Rico. As in past years, there are also several women students.

The school occupies commodious quarters in the very heart of the city on one of the "Five Points."

Several students are matriculated for post-graduate work, leading to the degree of "master of laws." This is a new course in the school.

The Atlanta Law school was organized in 1892. By act of the legislature, graduates of the school are admitted to the bar without examination. It was at first conducted as a night school, but experience soon demonstrated the impossibility of successfully teaching law with night classes. The school was reorganized in 1908 with day classes.

The faculty is composed of the following:

Professors—Hamilton Douglas, Ph.M., LL.B., dean, professor elementary law, wills and partnership. Hooper Alexander, A.B., professor of constitutional law, corporations and bailments and agency. Victor L. Smith, Ph.B., LL.B., professor of pleading and practice and commercial law. E. Marvin Underwood, A.B., LL.B., professor of evidence, torts and equity jurisprudence. Charles D. McKinney, A.B., B.Lit., LL.B., professor of realty, sales and domestic relations. Charles B. Reynolds, A.B., LL.B., professor directing school of practice. C. Murphey Candler, A.B., professor of contracts. Robert C. Alston, A.B., LL.B., professor of carriers and interstate commerce law. James D. Kilpatrick, A.M., LL.B., professor of criminal law. Edward P. Burns, A.B., LL.B., secretary, professor of the mathematics of annuities and insurance.

Lecturers—Hon. Beverly D. Evans, A.M., presiding justice supreme court. Hon. Joseph Henry Lumpkin, A.B., associate justice of supreme court. Hon. Marcus W. Beck, A.B., LL.B., associate justice supreme court. Hon. Benjamin Harvey Hill, A.B., LL.B., chief judge court of appeals. Hon. Richard Brevard Russell, A.B., Ph.B., LL.B., associate judge court of appeals. Hon. Arthur Gray Powell, associate judge court of appeals. Hon. William T. Newman, judge United States district court. Hon. William D. Ellis, judge superior court, Fulton county. Hon. George Hillyer, A.M., member Georgia railway commission. Hon. John S. Candler, A.M., ex-associate justice supreme court. Hon. John L. Hopkins, ex-judge superior court. Hon. Thomas Ewing, Jr., A.B., LL.B., of the New York bar. James H. Gilbert, A.B., LL.B.; Hon. George Westmoreland, William Perrin Nicolson, M.D., Charles A. Read, LL.B.; Sanders McDaniel, A.B.; Burton Smith, M.I., Ph.B.; James Henry Porter, A.B., LL.B.; William W. Gaines, B.S., LL.B.

A MERCANTILE TEST
—OF THE—
Mutual Benefit Life
INSURANCE COMPANY

An Atlanta wholesale grocer, of state-wide reputation, writes us the following letter:

"Back in '89 I took a $10,000 policy in your Company on the 15-Payment Plan, on which I received handsome dividends during the 15 years; and now, that it is paid up, the dividends still continue. I have insurance in other companies, but none that I like so well as the Mutual Benefit. Several of my business associates, who carry Mutual Benefit policies, are also well pleased with the able and conservative management of the Company."

FIFTY CARS OF PEOPLE BOUND FOR FLORIDA

Valdosta, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Probably the largest excursion that ever left this city was that over the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad to Jacksonville and St. Augustine.

There were three sections to the train, carrying a total of more than fifty coaches, which were filled when they left Valdosta.

Four hundred and seventy tickets were sold from Valdosta, and hundreds of people came from the towns north of here.

THOMASTON TO INSTALL WATERWORKS SYSTEM

Wells Drying Up and Health Authorities Demand Precautionary Measures.

Thomaston, Ga., September 29—(Special.)—The question of installing a system of waterworks is occupying the attention of the people of Thomaston. The matter is being agitated and it is probable that the mayor and council will call for an election for waterworks bonds in a short time. Thomaston is probably the only town of the size in Georgia that is without a system of waterworks and the people are beginning to realize the great need for it.

The water supply would probably be gotten from Potato creek, a stream of sufficient size to furnish for all time a source of never-failing supply, about 2 miles west of Thomaston.

CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING CO.

ATLANTA, GA., September 30, 1910.

Beyond the scalps lies 1912.

Taft received a Roosevelt medal on the small end of the big stick.

He may use the planks of the old platforms for paddling purposes.

The surprising feature of it is that the Indians found anything to graft.

Everywhere the good roads enthusiasm is helping on the great towns.

The tariff knows it has lost its grip when it shakes hands with the people.

If Ballinger hopes to get even with his critics he will never be out of a job.

Not one of them will stand pat when it's time to get in the run for office.

Office after office seek Mayor Gaynor, to the envy of the hungry political hosts.

If the limelight didn't play around the office so, Uncle Joe might slip in unawares.

However, Sunny Jim has put the world on notice that we have a vice president.

Not a dull day in camp with the Colonel. He's the news bureau of the country.

Don't worry. When they make the dollar bill smaller it will go just as far—and quick.

Still, it must make Bryan chuckle to see the insurgents standing on their old platforms.

In this age of miracles even the dead rise when the republicans need them at the polls.

Glenn Curtiss is now a magazine contributor, but probably gets better space rates higher up.

Our distinguished visitor from Sulu expresses great interest in Wall street. (Goodby, Sultan!)

In case of accidents it's just as well to take the court plaster and the arnica to the reformed football game.

Perhaps the reason the hobble-skirt "doesn't get anywhere" is that the woman inside of it doesn't start early enough.

It wasn't such a strenuous time for him at Saratoga, but just wait until he gets to shaking hands in Georgia!

"Bryan will get there in the long run," says a Nebraska exchange. (Sh! He said the other day he had quit that.)

At last we are to have a magazine of criticism, which is a sign that there must be a literature that is worthy of its lance.

The price alleged to have been paid in Lorimer's interest was only the first installment. He will be paying for what he got until time's up for him.

Mr. Aldrich will not get on dress parade because they sent him a little piece of praise for his tariff. He doesn't feel like intruding himself on the ultimate consumers.

Says Editor Watterson: "Hadji Mohammed Jumalul Kiram may be a 'pore benighted 'eathen,' but he is more enlightened than an American who votes the republican ticket and shouts for protectionism."

AT THE PARTING OF THE WAY!

In his keynote speech at the republican state convention, Theodore Roosevelt said:

"There is no need of any other party raising the cry, 'turn the rascals out,' for we have turned our own rascals out, and wherever rascality is found to exist in future, we will be even more prompt to punish any one of our party adherents, etc.!"

The keynote planks of the platform adopted at this same convention, and absolutely dictated by Theodore Roosevelt, declare:

"We enthusiastically indorse the progressive and statesmanlike leadership of William Howard Taft, and declare our pride in the achievements of his first eighteen months as president of the United States.

"The Payne tariff law reduced the average rate of all duties 11 per cent. By increasing the duties on some luxuries and articles not of ordinary use, making, however, no increase on any common food product, it turned a national deficit into a surplus."

And both of these utterances from the same source!

"We have turned our own rascals out," says Colonel Roosevelt.

And then—

An unqualified indorsement of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, the product of that supreme political rascality upon which insurgency itself is built—that insurgency which Roosevelt was to captain and through which the disintegrating republican party was to be redeemed!

"Turn the rascals out!" Of course. That is mild, inoffensive language, characteristic of the glittering and harmless generalities with which party platforms and political speeches abound.

But the "rascals" to which Mr. Roosevelt refers are of a very different kind from the "rascals" that the nation has in mind, and that Mr. Roosevelt has whitewashed in the lump in his platform utterances.

The common grafters, the ordinary large and small thieves that prey upon the public and that corrupt and bribe legislatures are food for GRAND JURIES. They infract the common law and the law is ample to deal with them.

Platform planks and keynote speeches agonize over their relatively petty larcenies only for political effect.

The "rascals" that have been turned out, and upon the turning out of which republican insurgency is built, are the rascals that concocted the Payne-Aldrich tariff law—by which great interests are given legal license to rob the public to their heart's content.

These are the sort of "rascals" that must be dealt with by political conventions and parties and in congress.

If the Roosevelt platform is correct, then Cannon, Hale, Aldrich, Burrows, Tawney, and every one of the stand-patters so furiously fought by the insurgents—were right.

There is no escape from the logic of the situation.

Under the Roosevelt reasoning, they, and not the insurgents, ought to be returned to congress.

And an inevitable step further—

If the Payne-Aldrich law is right, then insurgency is wrong and stand-patism is right, and the fight the insurgents have made, in and out of congress, is meaningless.

From whatever motive, Mr. Roosevelt has evidently made up his mind to stick to the president and all his works, and to support him for renomination.

But where does that leave the insurgents?

And where does it leave the republican party?

Admittedly, insurgency was its sole hope of redemption—of survival.

And Roosevelt, arch-insurgent, has placed his unqualified brand of approval upon the very thing that is most condemned by the insurgents and the very condemnation of which is the life blood of insurgency.

La Follette knew the situation and expressed the insurgent attitude when he wrote for the Wisconsin republican convention this unequivocal declaration:

The Payne-Aldrich tariff is not a compliance with the pledge of the republican party in its national platform.

It looks as if Roosevelt and La Follette have reached the parting of the ways, and that around the keynote declarations of New York and Wisconsin, on the tariff, will form the lines of the battle for the republican presidential nomination two years hence.

And the indications are that Mr. Roosevelt has lost a point in the New York action, for if that is to be the attitude of the republican party then La Follette, Bristow, Dolliver and the balance have no other recourse than to become democrats.

THE NEED FOR HASTE EMPHASIZED.

It seems that the city must wait another year before the sewer improvements authorized by the February bond issue are available.

This is disappointing!

It is discouraging to be told that we must wait so long before the city can begin to enjoy the greater health protection guaranteed by the bond election.

In the face of this condition, the necessity for haste is emphasized.

To the end that public patience and the community health may not be subjected to that test, it is incumbent upon the authorities to make all speed compatible with thoroughness.

The stake for which Atlanta is fighting in this matter is the lives of its citizens.

Council, the bond commission and the sewer committee should leave unconsidered no measure or policy that expedites protection.

Seven months ago, the people of Atlanta sanctioned these improvements. They have the right to demand that they shall not be kept waiting one unnecessary minute for their installation.

RATIFY THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS!

Three important constitutional amendments come before the voters of Georgia at the election to be held October 5, next Wednesday, a fact which makes urgent a full vote no less than the plain duty of supporting the party nominees.

The first amendment empowers the city of Augusta to exceed its constitutional limit of bonded indebtedness of 7 per cent of its taxable values, so that the city may take such measures as will protect it from the recurrence of the ruinous floods that have proven so costly and disastrous in the past. There is, and should be, no opposition to this amendment.

The second amendment permits the school tax to be expended upon high as well as primary schools. Under conditions prevailing since the promulgation of the constitution of 1877, the country counties have been unable to levy a tax for high school purposes, a condition that has militated sadly against their advancement. The cities, on the other hand, are permitted to expend money raised by local taxation, at their discretion. So that country counties are at an unfair and illogical disadvantage as compared with city counties. The amendment will not increase the state's debt, and applies only to the counties.

The third amendment extends the object for which county taxes may be levied, so that the counties of Fulton, Richmond and Chatham may pay their superior court judges as high as $5,000 a year, as they have been doing until the question of constitutionality was raised. As the counties care for this themselves the matter is one that should be left to them.

The Savannah Press points out that while there is little doubt of ratification of each of the amendments, it is desirable that the majority for them, and for the nominees, be overwhelming.

THE STREET CAR WAGE INCREASE.

Not only the employees but the management of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company are to be congratulated on the voluntary raising of wages, whereby the former are the gainers in an aggregate of $25,000 a year.

Such policy shows in rare and gratifying contrast to the experience of other cities in the east and middle west where, even now, employees of public service corporations are struggling to force wage concessions from corporations.

The action of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company draws attention to the pleasing freedom Atlanta has enjoyed from such disturbances.

The company has prospered and, without outside suggestion, it sees the justice of allowing its employees to prosper with it.

There would be little of the popular prejudice against corporations, were all of them actuated by so liberal a policy.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA"

When Trouble Said Good Morning.

When Trouble said "Good mornin'" through the cabin chink so dim,
He riz up, he riz up, an' locked the door on him!

"No company today!" Old Trouble heard him say:
He riz up in a hurry and locked the door on him.

He wuzn't feelin' sociable—that thing at once wuz plain,
And Trouble, weary waitin', took the big road in the rain.

"No company today!" when Trouble comes your way,
Rise up in a hurry an' lock the door on him!

The Strenuous Widow.

"The widow was redheaded," says The Adams Enterprise, "and she didn't employ a lawyer to get damages for her in the breach of promise suit—not her! She just waylaid the feller, took him by the coat collar, dragged him to court, made him sign the papers and plank the cash down, then said 'Goodby to you all,' and went home in time for dinner!"

Singin' in the Rain.

Happier than a millionaire that owns the flyin' train—
Feller on a bale o' cotton, singin' in the rain.

Ox-cart joggin' slow—"Style" he'll never know;
But he's travellin' to the country where the shiny dollars grow.

Life-road clear before him, an' Providence is plain:
Toiler of the sunshine, an' singin' in the rain.

Ox-cart joggin' slow—"Style" he'll never know;
But he's in the rosy country where the shiny dollars grow.

The Never-Failing Weather Prophet.

"We'd like to present an old-fashioned Raincrow to the Government Weather Bureau," says The Redbone Pioneer. "There's one in an oak tree right outside our office, and he never fails to strike the weather right. We've kept tab on him for six years, and when he says 'Rain,' it's rain, and no hedging at all. We both plant and swear by him, and it's our candid opinion that the government couldn't do better than engage his services."

The Autumn Scholar.

These drowsy days, they worry me,
Fer at my books I dream and nod,
And now my teacher says that she
Will whip me with a golden-rod.

She says: "Jes' have the learnin' habit,
You may be president some day."
I'd ruther run a Georgia rabbit
Than run the country anyway!

Placing the Colonel.

"W'en Kunnel Rosefelt comes, does you reckon I could git him ter gimme a job up in Washin'ton?" said Brother Dickey.

"Old man," someone said, "Do you think Roosevelt is president now?"

"Oh, I well knows he ain't president, so ter speak, but ez he's runnin' de whole country, he orter have de givin' away of de jobs!"

Dream of Wealth.

We'd like to be in the falltime class,
Our troubles would all be o'er
If Autumn's riches would only pass

F. L. S.

The Independent Movement.

(From The Athens Banner.)

The independent movement in Georgia, inaugurated by Thomas E. Watson, is bound to grow unless the people of this state, who are interested in party matters and loyal to the democratic party, take more interest in matters pertaining to good government.

Among the statehouse officers, opposition to Hoke Smith is being advocated and agitated. It may lead to serious conditions unless the democrats become aroused and go to work. It is not impossible for an independent to land in this office on account of the small vote usually cast in the general elections. With the active opposition of Mr. Watson, thousands of votes will be cast on that day for an independent, should one decide to enter the race.

This same condition is true in the congressional races. Here in the eighth district, Mr. Watson is using his best efforts and energies to defeat the nominee of the democratic party, Hon. W. M. Howard. He spoke in Franklin county last week and today he speaks at Greensboro. His subject has not been announced, but it is generally understood that he will address himself to the contest which is now being waged in this district between democracy and independentism. The election is about six weeks off and during that time every democrat in the district should work and lend best efforts toward the election of the nominee, Mr. Howard.

The fight which is now being made in this district against democracy is one of great importance to this state. It means the preservation of the party; it means the overthrow of democracy if the independent candidate is elected. Shall we, at this time, give up all that we have accomplished for the past twenty-five years or shall we resent the fight which is being made on the party and protect our rights and party organization? The time has come for us to decide. The ballots are to be cast as we see fit. If we cast them for the nominee, then we are aiding to preserve the party; if we cast them for the independent, then we are aiding the independent movement which is grasping for a hold on the affairs of this state. The negro will be brought back into politics and "cuffy" will have a say so in naming all candidates in the future. There can be no other course to pursue, if the people, at this time sit quietly by and allow an independent to slip in, then we may expect nothing more or less than a fight every two years between the democrats and independents in this district.

In this district the party has spoken; there is no foundation for the claim that Mr. Tribble is running as a democrat. There cannot be two democrats, under the primary system, participating in a general election. One or the other is an independent. Mr. Howard has been declared the nominee of the democratic party in this district by the convention assembled in regular order and by the legal delegates authorized and empowered under the law and the rules of the democratic party. He has accepted the nomination and is now the representative of the party. It is the democrats who are expected to elect, and if he is defeated, then it is a defeat of the party and not Mr. Howard.

Mr. Tribble has no claim on a nomination from the democratic party. He was not nominated in convention, but in a mass meeting, held without regard to party affiliations or rules governing conventions. It was nothing more than a hip and a hoorah, a declaration joined in by a crowd gathered here regardless of authority, and the action of the crowd was no more binding and no more authorized than if the same action had been taken by any crowd gathered together in the same manner. The delegates to the convention were not given an opportunity to participate in the mass meeting for the reason that the convention was never convened until Mr. Tribble and his crowd had left the building. The democrats of this district believe in law and order and in justice and fairness to all and they will not be misled into voting for an independent candidate on the claim that he is a nominee of the party, when in truth he is nothing but a bolter.

Just to keep our records straight, it is our duty to vote for the nominee, Hon. W. M. Howard.

Trox Should Have Been Elected.

(From The Macon Telegraph.)

If Trox Bankston has a grievance it is against the Hoke Smith primary law and not against the late chairman of the state committee.

The Telegraph regrets that Trox did not get into the next house. A man who could, after midnight on a Pullman sleeper, crawl from the second story of the berth section through the transom and find his way forward to a mogul locomotive and secure a monkey wrench to open a beer bottle for a thirsty friend has genius that ought to shine in the legislative halls of his country.

MANY PROSPECTORS IN COLQUITT COUNTY

Moultrie Real Estate Firms Have Their Hands Full.

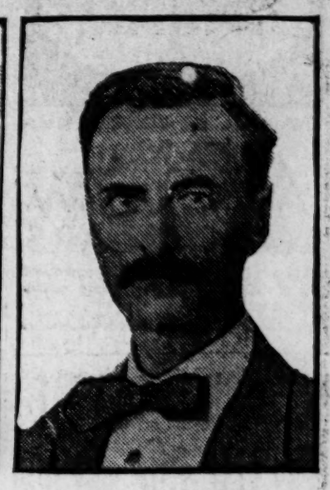

Moultrie, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Never before were so many prospectors in this county looking for homes. The several Moultrie real estate firms can hardly wait on their many clients, and it is not an unusual thing for a man who has an attractive farm on a prominent road to have a half dozen banters to sell or give an option in one day. The small one and two-horse farms are in greatest demand, and the purchasers are mostly young men from middle and north Georgia. One hundred new farms were opened up this year for the newcomers, but this will not supply a small per cent of the applicants. Many of the older settlers are being induced by fancy prices to sell their homes and they usually open up a new place or get a neighbor or a kinsman to divide with them.

TWO MEMBERS OF SENATE

JUDGE W. D. CRAWFORD,
Of Buena Vista, senator-elect from the twenty-fourth district.

Judge Crawford is a resident of Buena Vista, Marion county, and was born and reared there. The judge, who is now 51 years old, was educated there, and read law under Major E. W. Miller and was admitted to the bar in 1887. After a lengthy courtship, he won the hand of his preceptor's daughter, Miss Callie Miller, and they were married in 1891. The judge was mayor of Buena Vista five years. He was also judge of the county court for ten years, and his term on the bench was filled creditably and conscientiously. At the last primary he was elected senator.

HON. C. H. EDWARDS,
Senator-elect from the thirty-second district.

Mr. Edwards was born in 1867. He attended the public schools and high schools of White county. He has served White county one term as county surveyor. In a race for tax receiver, he was defeated by 19 votes. Mr. Edwards taught school in White county for twelve years, and afterward was elected county school commissioner, and served one term, during which time he studied law, and was admitted to the bar about nine years ago. He has practiced law ever since. At the end of his term as county school commissioner, he ran for the legislature, and was defeated by 8 votes. He has been attorney for White county for four or five years. In the recent primary he was elected senator.

ATLANTA HAS NO RECORDS OF MANY BIRTHS EACH YEAR

It is not possible to tell how many babies are born in Atlanta each year, because reports of all babies are not made.

The board of health says that the reporting of births has improved, and now only a few of the reputable physicians fail to comply with the law; but the fact still remains that there are many births that still remain off the records.

This state of affairs was ascertained by a reporter of The Constitution Thursday when he tried to secure some statistics about the number of little tots that annually make their advent into Greater Atlanta. Some figures could be given, but they were not full and complete, because, as stated, all births are not now reported.

The improvement has been so marked, however, of recent years that there is now some hope ere long that no little boy or girl will enter an Atlanta home without being duly recorded on the books.

It is unjust discrimination, to say nothing more, for one baby to get his or her name on the big book at the city hall, while another little tot has no official record made of him or her at all.

For some time the health department has been using every effort to get all births in the city reported. It has been making progress, and will continue its work until success has been attained.

The fact that now the births in the city exceed the deaths shows that the births are being better reported, but there is yet room for improvement.

BIG CROWD IS EXPECTED AT DRESS PARADE TODAY

Dress parade at Fort McPherson again this afternoon, and the wise ones among the thousands of Atlantans who have never witnessed this most impressive of all military ceremonies are expected to be out in numbers.

The regiment forms promptly at 4:30 o'clock, and if the crowd which was in attendance at the fort on Monday is any indication, there will be not only hundreds, but thousands out to watch one of the best trained of Uncle Sam's regiments execute the most attractive of all military maneuvers. The parade ground on both sides is lined with magnificent trees, affording ample shade for all. There are also perfect driveways, amply wide to allow the parking of all autos without the slightest crowding, and spectators in the cars will be close enough to plainly see even the faces of the men in the regiment.

The Constitution last Sunday contained an article relative to what was going on at the fort daily, as to how interesting it is, and of how few peopel availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing something which many of them never before saw. As a result, the crowd which watched the dress parade ceremonies Monday afternoon was one of the largest ever gathered at the fort, and both the officers and the enlisted men are hoping that an even larger crowd will be present today.

There is a perfect automobile road to the fort, and College Park and Hapeville cars, which leave The Constitution building every ten minutes, run immediatel past the reservation.

Letters From People

Worth Investigating.

Editor Constitution: Man is a slow thinking creature, and it usually takes a tragedy to wake him up to conditions that might have been foreseen, but for his slowness of thought. A little baby was run down by a street car in Atlanta yesterday and its life crushed out. This could have been avoided. The kind of a fender used by the Atlanta Street Railway Company is just about as good as no fender at all, because they swing so high from the rail that they could not possibly catch the body of a child, or even a man, when thrown on the track. The whole trouble lies with these fenders.

The Knoxville fender is made to hang about 6 inches above the track, and any time anything is about to be run over a bar that hangs under the front part of the car is struck and this trips the fender so that it drops down on the track and catches any object that may be in the way. Car men that I have talked with in regard to this fender say that as small an object as a half-grown chicken will trip the fender, and they tell me with this arrangement it is impossible for a car to run over a thing even as small as a frying-size chicken.

The Best Corn Yield.

Editor Constitution: In your editorial of the 24th instant you quote a passage from The Washington Post, in which they state that Farmer Batts, of North Carolina, had produced this year on one acre 225 bushels of corn and that this was the largest yield ever produced on an acre in this country. The Post is certainly not posted on corn growing in the United States.

The American Agriculturist offered a prize of $1,000 for the largest yield to be grown in the year 1876. The winner of this prize was a South Carolina man, who produced 256 bushels and 8 pounds on one acre.

Gossip at the Capitol

Governor Brown was out of the office yesterday, having gone to Tate, Ga., to attend the wedding of Miss Stella Tate and Mr. Preston Rambo.

Chairman Hutchens, of the prison commission, announced yesterday that J. F. Monk, warden of Appling county, had been removed for habitual intoxication.

CHATTANOOGA DAY AT APPALACHIAN FAIR

Informal Reception Tendered All Chattanooga by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver.

Knoxville, Tenn., September 289.—A large number of Chattanooga citizens were in Knoxville today, being attracted by Chattanooga day at the Appalachian Exposition. The two early morning trains were well loaded with Chattanoogans, and a special train of several coaches arrived at 9:30 o'clock, bringing many from way stations as well as a great throng from the neighboring city.

The Chattanoogans were met at the trains by exposition officials and other citizens and brass bands. At noon an informal reception was tendered in the exposition convention hall to all Chattanoogans, and one hour later, President and Mrs. W. J. Oliver entertained city and commercial body officials at a luncheon.

The fireworks display tonight included several set pieces designed especially in compliment to Chattanooga. The exposition building and amusements were seen by the visitors.

To Clean Up Moultrie.

Moultrie, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Next week will be "clean-up week in Moultrie." The Worth While club, a strong ladies' organization, is behind the movement and the forty members of the club will set the example by cleaning up their premises in pattern style this week. The ladies will have the cooperation of the town council and all the street working forces will be put to cleaning up and getting ready for the coming of the round-the-state automobile tourists in October. Many private citizens will contribute mules and wagons, and Moultrie will look like a country yard on Saturday afternoon when the tourists come.

Colquitt Court.

Moultrie, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Colquitt superior court will convene here Monday. The court will be of special interest because a new judge will preside and a new solicitor will be on duty. Judge Merrill, who succeeded Judge Mitchell by appointment, and Solicitor Rigdell will find a comparatively light docket of civil business and no new criminal business. Two or three cases of murder continued from former courts, including John Lott, the slayer of Charlie Wilkes, will come up for trial the second week.

Adams Wins Verdict.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) B. T. Adams, cotton merchant, today won a verdict in the city court in a case where I. L. Braswell sued for damages on account of an arrest growing out of the sale of a mortgaged mule. Braswell sued and the fight today resulted in a victory for the defendant.

CITY NEWS

Gammon Seminary Opens.—The opening exercises of Gammon Theological seminary will take place today at 2 p. m. in the chapel of Gammon hall, President S. E. Ideman in charge.

Wesley Memorial Revival.—At the Wesley Memorial revival the pastor, Rev. Frank Siler, is preaching every night at 7:30 o'clock. Lunches are served at cost at the church at 6:30 p. m. to girls and young women, with a vesper service at 7 o'clock, conducted by the church deaconess, Miss Carolyn Smith.

Dr. Lee Will Preach.—Rev. J. W. Lee, D. D., will preach in the Wesley Memorial revival at Wesley Memorial church Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, October 2. This will be the last chance that many will have to hear Dr. Lee before he leaves next week to take up his residence in St. Louis.

Moving Gradually to New Building.—Assistant Custodian Seal, of the custom house building, gave his time yesterday to the removal from Postmaster McKee's offices of carpets and other effects that will be replaced when the postmaster's apartments are finally removed from the old to the new building. The transfer for the handling of mails within the new building will not wholly take place for at least a week or ten days. Until the final change is made the postmaster will work officially from the apartments he now occupies.

United States Courts Are Moving.—The federal circuit court apartments are now complete within the new postoffice building, the transfer from the old custom house building having been ordered first because the next term of the Fifth district court will open Monday next with Judge Don A. Pardee, of Atlanta; Judge D. D. Shelby, of Huntsville, Ala., and Judge A. P. McCormick, of Dallas, Texas, presiding. In order that the next term of that court might be held in the new building the library and court papers connected with the office were among the first things removed.

Closed Meeting.—The membership of the Tabernacle Baptist church are planning to have on Friday evening of this week, at 8 o'clock, a family gathering, which will be exclusively held for the benefit of those who are members of the Tabernacle present. These meetings are held quarterly, at which time matters that affect the welfare of the church and the members are taken up. The meeting to be held this week is of great importance, in that it will be held during the absence of the pastor, and in which the membership will make all the sugestions, devise all plans for the needs of the church as a whole and the community in which it operates.

Revival Meetings.—Revival meetings in progress at the Jackson Baptist church are daily growing in interest, owing to the excellent preaching of Rev. Weston Bruner. His subject at 4 o'clock this afternoon will be "The Twentieth Century Young Man" and at 7:30 o'clock this evening "The Great White Throne." The music, led by Professor I. E. Reynolds, is an enjoyable feature of these meetings. Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock there will be a mass meeting for men only.

TO LAUNCH TODAY LAND EXPOSITION

Joint Committee Will Meet to Make Final Arrangements.

Actual work on the Land Owners' exposition will be begun today when the joint committee from the chamber of commerce and the Atlanta Real Estate Men's Association meet at the chamber of commerce rooms for the purpose of making final arrangements for the show.

The matter has been held up for more than a week past on account of the absence from the city of Edwin P. Ansley, Shelby Smith and Frank Weldon. Mr. Smith is president of the real estate men's committee, while to Mr. Weldon has been given the duty of obtaining exhibits for the show. All three gentlemen have returned to the city, however, and will be on hand to make final preparations for the actual campaign for exhibits in the land show. In this work they are expecting the assistance of a committee from the Greater Georgia Association.

The promoters of the Land Owners' exposition are enthusiastic in the extreme, believing that there is not the slightest doubt but that the success of the enterprise is already assured. Reports from almost every section of the state are to the effect that the people are thoroughly aroused over the proposition, and are waiting only to be informed as to what is necessary to make the land show the biggest and mots successful event of its kind ever held anywhere.

JEFFERSON POLITICS TAKE PECULIAR TURN

Spread, Ga., September 29.—Politics in Jefferson has taken a turn a little out of the ordinary at this late date. On the ticket in opposition to Hon. Robert N. Hardeman, who was nominated without opposition in the primary for representative, has been placed the name of Hon. William A. Walden, of Spread, Ga., as an independent candidate for representative from Jefferson.

Mr. Walden represented the eighteenth senatorial district some years ago in the state senate, and is considered a very strong man in his county.

Mr. Walden, when told of his name appearing on the ticket, stated that he knew nothing of it; had not authorized any such action, and stated further that if he had wanted the office, he would have run in the primary.

"SUNNY JIM" DECLARES THAT HE IS SATISFIED

Vice President Talks of Work of Roosevelt's Steam Roller.

Utica, N. Y., September 29.—Vice President James S. Sherman, in speaking of the state convention, said:

"I am entirely content with the result of the Saratoga convention. The platform is exceptionally clear and forceful, save only in reference to direct nominations. In that regard it needs explanation of its meaning and explanations will differ. I preferred the minority plank which was clear and unequivocal in declaration.

"The ticket named is excellent. Of course, the convention was absolutely dominated by one man, and its every action was taken at his bidding. That, however, I regard as procedure and not basic. I shall, of course, support the ticket nominated."

DAIRYMAN BARRED FOR THIRTY DAYS

His Milk Caused Typhoid Fever Cases, Says Dr. Kennedy.

One of the developments in the milk situation yesterday was an order from the health department requiring a dairyman to stop selling milk from his dairy for thirty days. This was done because the milk, so the health officer, Dr. Kennedy, reported, had caused several cases of typhoid fever.

Dr. Kennedy states that the milk condemned was sold to twenty-four customers, and of this number ten cases of typhoid fever developed.

"I was informed," stated Dr. Kennedy, "that this dairyman washed his bottles in water from a well, and it is probable that the infection came from this water. The man readily agreed to throw away the milk or feed it to hogs for thirty days. We do not think it right to have his name published, as it would ruin his business."

Dr. Claude A. Smith, the city bacteriologist, is still conferring with dairymen and telling them how they can bring cold milk into the city, and thereby save money as well as human lives. He says that the dairymen are now all seeing that he is right, and are willing to help him bring about a reform in the manner of selling milk. The new law requires a temperature of less than 50 degrees for all milk shipped into the city and sold to customers. The dairymen at first thought this would be impossible, and made a kick.

"Now I am showing them how wrong they were," states Dr. Smith. "I am having constructed in my office a milk-cooling machine, and I will give a practical demonstration of how milk can be cooled as the health department would have it. The machine is simple, and costs very little. All the dairymen will visit my office and see how it is operated. In a short while the trouble will all be over, and we will have clean, wholesome milk sold in our city."

SOMETHING CRACKED IN RECTOR'S BRAIN

And in That Condition He Took His Own Life.

Chicago, September 29.—New light was thrown on the suicide of Reverend Arthur W. Little, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church in Evanston, when it became known that he himself had been compelled to take treatment in a sanitarium at Neshota, Wis., for three weeks last January.

The letter which was found on Dr. Little's writing desk, read:

"September 28, 1910.—Something has broken in my brain. I told the doctor and the Slaymakers and they would not believe me. But it is true. The wireless clothesline is broken. God have mercy.

A. W. LITTLE.

"Oh, my poor wife! Be good to her."

The sentence "the wireless clothesline is broken" is unexplained.

"He was by far the finest Latin scholar in the diocese," said the Rev. W. T. Sumner, dean of the cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul, "and in my opinion one of the most refined, cultured clergymen we had. Personally, he was charming, a real 'thoroughbred' in every-day life.

"I have seen a great change in him in the last few years, since the illness of his wife and I know he has been more and more despondent of late, though I never had any expectation of this shocking end."

Succeeds Clark Clement---Is a Senior in College of Arts This Year.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) Ralph L. Meeks, of Homer, Ga., has been selected as editor-in-chie of The Mercerian to succeed Clark Clement, for another year.

He is already experienced in the work for the college magazine, and will prove one of the best in the service.

He is a senior in the college of arts this year.

ROBBER USES TORCH AFTER LOOTING STORE

Ty-Ty Merchant Loses Heavily as Result of Burglar's Visit.

Tifton, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) The general mercantile store of G. S. Nelson, at Ty-Ty, was burglarized and burned this morning about 1 o'clock. An attempt was also made to break into the store of O. Shapiro.

The report of an explosion of dynamite in an attempt to open the safe in Nelson's store awoke citizens, who gave the alarm. When the crowd gathered the front of the store was in flames and nothing could be saved. Fortunately nothing of value was in the safe.

A quantity of goods taken from the store were found about 300 or 400 yards distant, where they were dropped by the thieves when the alarm was given.

An effort was made to catch the thieves, but so far there is no trace of them. Mr. Nelson's loss on stock was about $3,200, with insurance of $2,000; on the building about $1,000, with $500 insurance.

Dr. L. A. Baker had his office in Nelson's store, and his loss is about $400, covered by insurance.

Reception Tendered Students.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) The annual reception to the faculty and students of Mercer university by the First Baptist church occurrd in the annex tonight, a large number of people attending. Dr. Dargan and the congregation had arranged a program of rare interest, and the Sunday school members took part in the exercises. A large number of the friends of both the congregation and the college attended and enjoyed the affair.

$1,486,429 GAIN IN CITY BUILDINGS

First Nine Months of This Year Show a Big Increase.

The cost of buildings erected in Atlanta for the first nine months this year exceed those for the same period last year by nearly $1,500,000.

This increase has been kept up all year and will continue, so the building inspector thinks.

For the first nine months of last year, that is, from January 1 to October 1, the number of permits was 3,336 and the cost of buildings $4,235,071.

From January 1 to September 30 of this year the number of permits is 3,437 and the cost of buildings $5,721,500.

This shows the actual increase to be $1,486,429.

ROAD ASKS EMPLOYEES TO FIGHT FOR RATES

Central of Georgia Makes Appeal to Its Men to Aid in Contest.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) Employees of the Central railway here have received from General Superintendent T. S. Moise, of Savannah, a letter in booklet form in which he strongly urges them to stick by the road in the fight for increase in freight rates.

He declares that the only thing the road has to sell for an income is being battered and fought down, and it becomes the duty of all employees to defend the road and stand with it in a fight for increase and a maintenance of the present rates for an income.

FINANCE COMMITTEE MEETS AGAIN TODAY

Over $15,000 Needed to Make Receipts and Expenditures Equal.

The finance committee of council met again yesterday morning and went over the apportionment sheet for October, trying to "make both ends meet." Nothing definite was done, and there will be another meeting today.

Chairman Grant says he figures out that it will take $17,000 more than the estimated receipts call for to carry on the work of the city as already planned, and that there is, therefore, not a dollar for any extra appropriation. The mayor says it will take about $15,000 more money than there is in sight.

It is believed, however, that "both ends will meet," and that the committee will find the needed money.

BOOSTERS OF MACON SPEND BUSY WEEK

Enthusiasm Attends Effort of Chamber of Commerce to Secure 1,000 Members.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) Enthusiasm is still attending the work of the teams in the chamber of commerce movement for increase of membership to 1,000. A large number of the business people of the community who had heretofore been out of the ranks came in today, and at least a hundred new names are on the lists that were not there yesterday.

Every person with any civic pride will be hunted up and urged to come into the body. The work of the teams is appealing to all classes of people. A rivalry has developed among those seeking members that has caused hard effort already and will be the means or greatly enlarging the working body.

CREMATED IN BONFIRE OF RELIGIOUS BOOKS

As Mamie McCarthy Was Being Burned She Prayed.

St. Louis, September 29.—Kneeling in the midst of a bonfire which she had made of pages of religious books and magazines and saturated with coal oil with her own hands, Mamie McCartny, 18 years old, slowly burned to death in the rear of her home yesterday afternoon while she prayed. She died at the city hospital an hour later.

The girl's action was a sudden inspiration. She apparently had waited until an unguarded moment to carry out her fanatical act. The Bible, magazines and papers with which she made the bonfire were taken from a center table in the living room, where she had been sewing.

ROSE'S FOREFATHER CORN WHISKEY THE BEST OF THEM ALL

WE OWN MORE OLD CORN WHISKEY THAN ALL THE OTHER DISTILLERS COMBINED

EXPRESS PREPAID TO ALL POINTS REACHED BY SOUTHERN OR ADAMS EXPRESS LINES

Some people associate corn whiskey with a white, raw liquor, inferior in taste and purity. Much corn whiskey sold before it is aged, is white and lacks that delicious "smack" which distinguishes a really fine corn whiskey. ROSE'S FOREFATHER CORN WHISKEY is distilled from the finest grains obtainable, by the old-fashioned, slow, careful process of boiling and doubling in copper over open wood fires. It is a blend of absolutely pure, straight old corn whiskies and that fact is plainly stated on the label. It is real whiskey.

ROSE'S FOREFATHER CORN WHISKEY after being blended is aged for years in wood. This ripens and mellows the whiskey and gives it a superior flavor, body and bouquet, and gives it a beautiful straw color, varying to light amber. This whiskey is without an equal for medicinal use. It is absolutely pure and uncommonly delicious. The better judge of whiskey you are, the better you will appreciate ROSE'S FOREFATHER CORN WHISKEY. But you must be delighted with it or we will not keep your money.

HUNTING FLASK OF RARE OLD RYE WHISKEY FREE

We will include free with every order of eight quarts or more of ROSE'S FOREFATHER CORN WHISKEY, a handsome, one-pint hunting flask, filled with a rare, special, old rye whiskey which we do not offer for sale at all. As we have only a limited quantity of this rare whiskey, we cannot sell it. As the quantity is so limited we cannot undertake to extend this offer after January 1, 1911.

4 FULL QUARTS of ROSE'S FOREFATHER CORN WHISKEY, prepaid to all points reached by Southern or Adams Ex. Companies $4

OUR GUARANTEE AND MONEY BACK OFFER

We will send on your order the amount of ROSE'S FOREFATHER CORN WHISKEY you want and you are then to try it and test it in any way you please. Use as much as necessary to thoroughly satisfy yourself of its quality. If you do not find ROSE'S FOREFATHER CORN WHISKEY a better corn whiskey than you have ever used, thoroughly satisfactory in every way, ship back at our expense what remains and we will instantly refund every cent of your money, without a protest.

WOODWARD MEN ARE SATISFIED

Secretary J. M. Hollowell Discusses Mayoralty Campaign.

The report from the campaign committee of James G. Woodward, candidate for mayor, yesterday was that everything was moving along smoothly and satisfactorily.

Acting Secretary J. M. Hollowell, speaking for the campaign committee in the absence of both the chairman and the secretary, had some things to say in regard to the Winn campaign up to date, and the statement was vouched for, he said, by a number of citizens who had attended the Winn ward meetings.

"In the first place," said Mr. Hollowell, "we are entirely satisfied with our campaign, and we put Mr. Woodward's majority down at about 1,500—it may go to 2,000, but we wish to be conservative. We believe that Mr. Woodward will safely carry the first, the second, the third, the fifth and the ninth wards. Mr. Winn says he will carry the sixth, the seventh, the eighth and the tenth wards; but, if he does, his majorities in none of them will be large. We believe there will be some great surprises in the sixth ward, and probably in the eighth. The fourth ward may be doubtful, but we believe that it will be in the Woodward column.

"We are conducting a quiet and business-like campaign, and are not resorting to any fakes and misstatements about ward meetings to bolster up our candidate. Now just take that meeting at the Winn headquarters Wednesday night to organize a young men's club. It was well advertised and voters invited from every ward in the city. There were exactly sixteen men present. Yet it was given out that a 'great and enthusiastic gathering' had taken place. It has been the same way at the other ward meetings, except probably the one in the seventh ward.

"We will begin an active campaign for Mr. Woodward next week. We have been waiting for the registration lists to close."

FUNERAL OF AVIATOR WHO FLEW OVER ALPS

Occasion Remarkable in the Matter of Floral Tributes.

Dormodossola, Italy, September 29.—The funeral of George Chavez, the South American aviator who was fatal injured after having accomplished the unprecedented feat of flying from Switzerland over the Alps to Italy, was held today.

Floral tributes came from all parts of Europe, and thousands of peasants tramped down the mountain sides, with arms filled with mountain flowers.

One little girl laid upon the casket a bunch of edelweiss that blooms alone amid the eternal snows of the Alps, bound with a ribbon upon which had been written "Gathered among the mountain peaks over which you flew."

An autopsy revealed that the aviator's heart was displaced by the shock of the fall.

GIRL IS KILLED BY FALLING WALL

Roswell School Girl Meets Tragic Death on Way From School.

Roswell, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Gladys Martin, aged 9, was instantly killed this afternoon by the falling of a wall of the Roswell grist mill.

The little girl, in company with several schoolmates, was on her way from school. Overtaken by a rainstorm, the children sought shelter under the mill shed. Without warning, a post gave way and a portion of the building collapsed. The child was caught beneath the falling timbers and instantly killed.

Her little playmates escaped as by a miracle.

Little Gladys was the daughter of Mrs. Crook, of Dunwoody, Ga. She was living with relatives during the school term.

G. S. & F. ROAD TO BUILD DEPOT IN VALDOSTA

Arrangements Made to Connect Madison and Hazlehurst Divisions.

Valdosta, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Condemnation proceedings for a right-of-way for the Georgia and Florida railroad through the southern part of the city were concluded today, and the road will begin at once the laying of its tracks connecting its line through the city.

The Georgia and Florida has been using the Atlantic Coast Line tracks for more than a mile since it was built two years ago, switching onto the Coast Line on the eastern edge of town and using the latter's passenger station.

When the new loop through the city connecting the Madison and Hazlehurst divisions is completed, the road will build its own station and use its own tracks.

Mobile, Ala., September 29.—At the afternoon session of the National Insurance Commissioners, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Joseph A. Button, of Richmond, Va., president; Theodore H. McDonald, of Hartford, Conn., vice president; H. R. Cunningham, of Helena, Mont., secretary and treasurer (re-elected.)

Milwaukee, Wis., was unanimously chosen as the next place of meeting.

SOUTH'S PRODUCTS AT PITTSBURG FAIR

Agricultural Display of This Section to be Feature of Exhibition.

Pittsburg, Pa., September 28.—(Special.)—The agricultural resources of the south and the many advantages which that section offers to the homeseeker are going to be made a distinct feature of the National Land and Irrigation exposition, popularly known as "Pittsburg's Big Land Show," to be held in Pittsburg at Duquesne Garden, October 17 to 29, through the exhibit which the Southern Railway Company has arranged to make through its land and industrial department.

This exposition is backed by two of Pittsburg's great daily papers, and will be the most comprehensive show of its kind ever held. The "back-to-the-soil" movement has taken deep root in the densely populated district around Pittsburg, where farmers are being driven out of their fields by the encroachments of factories, mines and oil wells. In the city of Pittsburg there are 565,000 souls, while the population of the district within a radius of 40 miles is 2,225,000. The show has been extensively advertised in the Pittsburg district and throughout the surrounding territory. Railroads have given rates that are sure to aid in attracting thousands to the show.

The land and industrial department of the Southern is equipped to make a comprehensive exhibit, showing the opportunities that await the settler along its lines in the southeast, and Land and Industrial Agent M. V. Richards will make the very best possible display, feeling that through the Pittsburg show he will reach just the people whom the south wises to attract.

In addition to the exhibit by the Southern railway, the Pittsburg show, which has its offices in the Keystone building, Pittsburg, is endeavoring to secure a number of exhibits from chambers of commerce, boards of trade and other organizations in the south, interested in the development of that section.

WESLEYAN RECITAL.

Faculty Entertains Large Audience in College Chapel.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) Wesleyan's student body and faculty, with a large audience of friends, were highly entertained this evening in the college chapel with the first faculty recital of the new year.

A program rare in charm and interest was rendered.

COUNTY PRISONERS BREAK TEXAS JAIL

Several Desperate Characters Among Number Escaping From Dallas Prison.

Dallas, Texas, September 29.—The entire sheriff's force, assisted by the local police, is searching for ten county prisoners who early today escaped from the city jail. As several of the escapes are desperate characters, and are known to be armed, a fight is expected if they are overtaken.

The prisoners, a majority of whom were negroes, were confined in the city jail while the county jail is being enlarged. Early this morning they overpowered their guards and, after taking the latter's arms, dropped from a second-story window and disappeared.

Several of them are charged with murder, but the majority were being held for minor crimes.

SOCIETY

MARRIAGE OF MISS TATE AND MR. PRESTON RAMBO

MRS. PRESTON RAMBO,
Whose marriage on Thursday was a brilliant social event, at which a number of Atlanta people were present. Before her marriage, Mrs. Rambo was Miss Stella Tate.

A beautiful and impressive ceremony was the marriage of Miss Stella Tate and Mr. Preston A. Rambo yesterday at high noon at Frohawk, the country home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Tate, near Tate, Ga.

The house was charmingly decorated with bamboo, ferns and rainbow moss, and in the reception hall were hung three huge wedding bells of white carnations. The mantle, in front of which the bridal party stood during the ceremony, was banked with a profusion of star jessamine, bamboo, bridal roses and ferns.

Rev. C. C. Jarrell was the officiating minister, and the only attendants were four little flower girls, nieces of the bride, Miss Mary Byrd, Miss Mary Holland and Misses Sarah and Lucy Tate.

The bride wore an elaborate gown imported from Japan, made of Japanese white crepe, embroidered with American Beauty roses and gold butterflies and trimmed with point lace taken from the gown worn by Miss Tate when she christened the battleship Georgia. She was crowned with a wreath of orange blossoms, from which hung the bridal veil of white point lace. Her only ornament was a necklace of matched pearls.

After the ceremony an elaborate breakfast was served, the guests being seated at small tables placed throughout the reception hall and around the porch.

Fruit punch was served by Miss Regina Rambo and Miss Virginia Tate.

Dr. Rambo and his bride will sail for Rio Janeiro, where they will make their home, on October 20, after having previously visited Mr. Rambo's relatives in south Georgia. Mr. Rambo is a native Georgian and a member of the well-known Rambo family of Marietta, Ga.

Mrs. Rambo is a sister of Mr. William Tate and of Mr. Carter Tate, district attorney, and is one of the most popular young women in the state.

The wedding party from Atlanta and Marietta left this city on a special train at 8 o'clock in the morning and returned at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Among the guests were Governor and Mrs. Joseph M. Brown, Mrs. J. O. Mathewson, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Elkin, Judge and Mrs. John C. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. James Hart, of Athens; Judge and Mrs. Samuel H. Sibley, of Union Point, and Misses Horton and Stanley Mathewson.

Athletic Club Dance.

The Athletic Club dance at East Lake will be an enjoyable event of Saturday night, and a large attendance is expected.

These Saturday night dances will be continued through October, and will form a bright part of the month's social gayety.

D. A. R. Cafe.

Today at the D. A. R. restaurant, 124 Peachtree street, Mrs. Madison Bell will be chairman in charge, and the ladies assisting are Mrs. Albert Akers, Mrs. J. E. Hunnicutt, Mrs. H. B. Scott, Mrs. G. W. Stevens, Mrs. W. G. Chipley, Mrs. L. P. Stevens, Mrs. C. F. Barnwell.

A well-prepared dinner will include chicken pie, Virginia ham, spagnetti, candied sweet potatoes, salad, hot rolls and coffee.

Tailor-Made Corset Co.
Makes Important Announcement

It is an announcement valuable to Atlanta women, especially at this time, that the Tailor Made Corset Company has secured an expert and noted corsetiere, who is already at work upon early orders. Mrs. J. M. Finch, who has had an experience of fifteen years with the most successful makers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, seven years of this time with Frances L. Thompson, the leading custom-made corset firm in Boston, and celebrated throughout the east, has been brought to Atlanta; this move in accordance with the Atlanta trade spirit which recognizes a demand, and wastes no time in meeting it.

Mrs. Finch's arrival is most opportune. The women of Atlanta, and indeed all those in this section who do their shopping in Atlanta, have given their orders for the fall gowns or they are preparing to do so. And every woman from whom dress receives a fair and proper consideration knows the importance of a good foundation for the fitting of a gown.

The pronounced and close-fitting styles which will obtain this season will make it more imperative even than usual that the lines of the figure should be molded according to the lines the gowns are intended to follow, and every woman, no matter what her own "lines," will need some assistance for fashionable conformity.

The new gowns—even those with "hobble" skirts—are quite lovely if they are properly made and properly worn, but the last "if" is a very vital one and a perfect corset is the only solution.

For Atlanta women this indisputable fact need scarcely be emphasized. They have not earned their reputation for a knowledge of dress, surpassed by no women outside of New York, by neglect of a principle so basic, so essential as the perfect lines, the perfect fit of the corset. Indeed the fit of the gown is a natural sequence to the fit of the corset, and therefore a negligible care in comparison.

As a clever advertiser said of custom-made corsets, "they are like a man's clothes that are tailor-made. He knows it, and the public knows it."

The real issue is that the Tailor Made Corset Company is ready to meet the demand, and they invite their customers to call at their parlors, 6½ Whitehall street.

Williams-Hawes.

The wedding of Miss Mary Belle Williams and Mr. S. T. Hawes, of Bainbridge, was a beautiful event of last night, taking place at the suburban home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams, near Decatur. Several hundred guests were present, including a number from out-of-town, and a delightful hospitality was tendered them after the ceremony.

Rev. Joel T. Daves officiated and the attendants were: Miss Clifford Williams, maid of honor; Mrs. T. E. Gurr, of Bainbridge, matron of honor; Miss Linda Miller, bridesmaid; Mr. C. C. Williams, best man; Mr. Wallace Wright and Mr. Ed Smith, of Bainbridge, groomsmen; little Misses Frances Kennedy and Margaret Williams, ribbon-bearers.

The bride was beautiful in her wedding gown of white radium satin trimmed with hand-made lace and pearls, and her silk illusion veil was the wedding veil of her aunt, Mrs. S. G. McLendon. Her bouquet was a shower of valley lilies.

Mrs. Gurr wore a white lace gown over green messaline, her bouquet of white carnations. Miss Williams wore white chiffon hand-painted in pink roses, and Miss Miller wore a white lace grown, their flowers pink roses.

Mrs. Williams, the bride's mother, wore lavender satin, and the little ribbon-bearers wore white dresses with pink ribbons.

Assisting in entertainment were Dr. and Mrs. Royal J. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. McLendon, Miss Caroline Williams.

The house was handsomely decorated in foliage plants, smilax and roses, the whole lower floor and the spacious veranda being thrown together. The bridal party stood before an artistic arrangement of palms and ferns banked against a tall mantel in the drawing room and overhead was a large bell of smilax.

In the dining room the table centerpiece was a basket of pink roses, the handle tied with pink tulle, and all the color detail was pink.

An orchestra provided music for the ceremony and reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawes went west for a tour of six weeks, and they will make their home in Bainbridge.

He is general counsel for the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railroad and a man of prominence, who is held also in high social esteem. His bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams, a sister of Mr. C. C. Williams, of the Central road, and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. McLendon, is a young woman of pronounced charm and socially popular.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. B. C. Prince and Mr. R. T. Ingalls, of Bainbridge; Judge Calhoun and Mr. L. M. Rambo, of Arlington, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Gurr, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McTyer, Miss Merrill McTyer, of Bainbridge; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Williams, Mr. A. L. Williams, of Norfolk.

CHARM OF VAUDEVILLE STARS CAUSED YOUTH'S ARREST

Fitzgerald, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Willie Porter, a young man from Gainesville, who was introduced to some of Fitzgerald's attractive young ladies, and incidentally their mamas, by a popular young man of the city, has come to grief and the city bastile, and is now longing for his people, who are said to be respected citizens of Gainesville, to help him out of jail and his predicament.

Although he was vouched for and introduced to people of unquestionable social position here, he also showed a fondness for the society of vaudeville charmers and footlight favorites, and now languishes behind the bars on a charge of cheating and swindling.

HE INVENTS NEW GRATE TO REDUCE COAL BILLS

The problem of reducing the coal bill has been solved by an Atlanta inventor, C. Horace McCall, general agent Jefferson Standard Life, who on yesterday received a patent from Washington for a heating attachment and open grate.

Mr. McCall's invention, so expert engineers state, will save the consumers of coal in the south from 33 to 50 per cent. The grate is easier regulated than any other heating device of such a character, and is so arranged as to keep heat in a room and at the same time prevent it from going up the chimney.

The grate has been tested by H. H. Norman, instructor at the Tech. He states that it will reduce the coal bill to one-half.

In speaking of the invention The Manufacturers' Record, in a recent issue, said:

"A recent invention along the lines of coal-saving devices by a southern inventor, Mr. C. Horace McCall, of Atlanta, Ga., has attracted widespread interest owing to the fact that it is the first successful attempt to adapt any coal-saving system to the open fireplaces so generally used throughout the southern states. Mr. McCall's device has the advantage of being both simple and inexpensive, and it has been conclusively shown that by its use an average saving of at least 50 per cent can be effected.

"The device can be attached to any open fire place in less than fifteen minutes, and by the addition of a special grate, can be so arranged that the cheapest grade of coal can be used with heating efficiency equal to the most expensive fuel.

"It is claimed by expert heating engineers that the general use of Mr. McCall's invention through the southern states would result in a saving of fuel in this section of not less than several millions yearly."

Mr. McCall will probably organize a company in the near future, and the grates will soon be placed on the market.

Atlanta Party.

Miss Minnie Daniel's afternoon party yesterday in compliment to Miss Benckart, of Lexington, Ky., who is visiting Mrs. L. J. Daniel, was a unique and enjoyable affair, with thirty guests assembled.

A guessing contest, called "Shopping in Atlanta," brought out the names of local firms, and the prizes, a hat-pin holder and a souvenir of Atlanta, were won by Mrs. Yancey Bryant and Mrs. R. A. Gordon. The guest of honor was presented a souvenir spoon.

Afternoon tea was served from a prettily-appointed table in the dining room, its decoration of pink roses, and the ices were served in pink rose cups.

Miss Daniel was becomingly gowned in king's blue chiffon.

MEETINGS.

The regular meeting of the Teacher's Graded Union will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Wesley Memorial church. Miss Dickinson, head of the kindergarten at the settlement home, will lead the meeting, and the subject of her address will be "The Spirit versus The Letter in Sunday School Teaching." All teachers and Sunday school workers are invited.

The Georgia Libby Circle of the Kings' Daughters and Sons will meet with Mrs. Melton, 185 Rawson street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

There will be a meeting of the Guild at the First Methodist church this morning at 10 o'clock. Full attendance requested.

Tea Services

There is no sameness about the Tea Services we are showing especially for the fall weddings.

They are the most charming illustrations of the best designs, the finest work of manufacturers, and there are patterns enough to form happiest comparisons.

FIGHT CONTINUES OVER SIDE TRACK

Mrs. W. H. Felton Appears Before Commission to Represent Self.

The railroad commission yesterday resumed its hearing of the application of Mrs. W. H. Felton, of Cartersville, to compel the Louisville and Nashville railroad to replace and maintain its side track at Feltonia.

The venerable lady who is the complainant in the case was present in person and argued her case with great skill and astuteness. The road was represented by Colonel Baylor, John L. Tye and Henry C. Peeples. Several witnesses were examined, and the argument consumed several hours.

The case involves a side track from Feltonia to some mining property which was constructed by the railroad company on a right-of-way deeded by the late Dr. Felton. Recently the side track was removed, and Mrs. Felton claims it was done without notice to her, without reason and without returning the deed to the property.

The contention of the railroad company was that the side track was not a public facility, but a private affair, and, therefore, not subject to review by the commission as an alleged violation of general order No. 14, which prohibits a public facility from being discontinued without the approval of the commission.

The hearing continued from 10 o'clock until nearly 5 o'clock. No decision was announced by the commission.

HIS DOLLAR MISSING AND HIS WHISKY, TOO

E. C. Ervin Has Henry Draper Arrested on Charge of Larceny After Trust.

The next time E. C. Ervin wants a pint of whisky, no matter whether he wants it to drink or to find out if there are any B. T.'s in Atlata, he'll be very careful in selecting his messenger, because he has been to school to that good old-fashioned teacher, Experience.

Henry Draper professed himself a cheerful and knowing messenger, so Ervin entrusted to him $1, so he says, with which to buy a pint of whisky, the pint to be brought back to Ervin as quickly as possible. Draper took the dollar and vamoosed; but he did not return with either the dollar or the pint, so Ervin called in the assistance of the police and had Draper arrested on the charge of larceny after trust.

The case will come up for trial this week in the city criminal court.

Alleging that her husband cut her so severely on the arm with a knife that he caused a scar of long duration, Estella Moss has filed suit for divorce against King Moss. She says that the defendant's treatment of her was so violent and cruel that she stood in constant dread of her life, and that finally she was forced to leave him for this reason. She asks for total divorce, for the custody of her two children, and for attorney's fees and costs of court.

J. H. McCulla, as administrator of the estate of Samuel R. McCulla, has entered suit for $30,000 as indemnity for the death of Samuel R. McCulla, who was run over and killed by one of the road's engines.

ATLANTIC OCEAN RED WITH THE "FATBACKS"

The Fish Are Being Caught to Make Oil and Guano.

Beaufort, N. C., September 29.—A million and a half "fatbacks" fish were caught off here today and fishermen who came ashore tonight reported that as far as the eye could reach the oceans was red with the fish. Nearly two hundred men are employed in catching them. The "fatbacks," properly called menhadens, are not fit for food, but are dried and manufactured into oils and guano.

MATRIMONY A BUSINESS AFTER MAN REACHES 50

So Says Fred Crowell, Aged 73, Who Wedded Comely Widow.

Washington, September 29.—"Matrimony is purely a business, after a man reaches 50 and a benedict at that age always gets bumped on the rocks when he imagines he is in love." This sage observation came from Frederick Greenwood, 73 years old, of Norfolk, Va., who, after becoming the husband of Mrs. Rena F. Crowell, a comely widow of northern Virginia, told a dozen or more court clerks and newspaper men about the difference between love and mere esteem of a woman. Marriage after 50, Greenwood asserted, is merely a companionship agreement. It was his second venture matrimonially, his first wife having died.

THIS IS "FAIR DAY" SAYS WEATHER MAN

Rain Is Over for Time, Declares Forecaster Von Herrmann.

This is a "fair day"—fair by the prophecy of the weather man, fair because the Gopher says so, and fair because all Atlanta can get a good lunch at a fair price from some of the fairest women on earth.

ON THE WAY TO A GOOD LUNCH.

This is brought out by the fact that the Daughters of the American Revolution have a restaurant at 124 Peachtree street, where the very best of good things to eat are being served at reasonable prices.

The weather man says the rain for the time being is over, and that this day and probably several more will be fair.

The refreshing shower has broken the backbone of summer, and it is believed from now on that the weather will be cooler.

FIRST "TEETOTALLER" CHOSEN LORD MAYOR

In Sir Thomas Strong London as Prohibition Executive.

London, September 29.—Sir Thomas Vesey Strong today was elected lord mayor of London without opposition. Sir Thomas is a pronounced temperance advocate and enjoys the distinction of being the first "teetotaller" chosen as chief magistrate of the metropolis. He was born in 1857 and in 1900 married Lillie, the eldest daughter of the late James Hartnell.

Sir Thomas was educated privately and is credited with being a self-made man. In business he has been successful as the head of a paper supply firm. He was knighted while occupying the office of sheriff of the city of London. He is a director of the United Kingdom Temperance and General Provident Institution and a commander of the Order of Isabella the Catholic of Spain and of the Order of Our Lady of Villa Vicose of Portugal.

The mayor will figure prominently in the entertainments and ceremonies connected with the coronation of King George.

BELL BOY'S UNIFORM ENRAGED GEN. FUNSTON

Too Much Like the Army Uniform to Suit Doughty Warrior.

Kansas City, Mo., September 29.—How Brigadier General Frederick A. Funston became enraged because a bellboy in a hotel here wore a uniform which was almost a replica of a captain in the regular army, and moved from the hostlery Monday, developed today.

General Funston and Percy Barshfield, a former lieutenant in the Twentieth Kansas, were together when they noticed the bell boy. They both asked of the head clerk the reason for the youth being permitted to wear a uniform of such a pattern.

"It is an insult to every man who wears shoulder straps," said General Funston. "It takes years of waiting and hard service to earn it, and we'll not see it degraded by use as the livery of a servant."

While the clerk was explaining that no insult to the army had been intended, General Funston demanded that his bill be made. A few minutes later he left the hotel.

Rhode Island Democrats.

Providence, R. I., September 29.—The democrats of this state met in convention here today and nominated a full state ticket, headed by Lewis A. Waterman, of Providence, for governor.

In the platform the Aldrich tariff is denounced as "the most dishonest piece of tariff legislation ever enacted, purposely framed to yield unearned wealth to certain corporations and combinations of capitalists."

TO WATERS OF THE GULF GIRL'S BODY IS CONSIGNED

New Orleans, September 29.—In conformity with a parents' promise that in the event of her death she should be buried at sea, a casket containing the body of Miss Marjorie Miller was yesterday conveyed down the Mississippi and, heavily weighted, was consigned to the waters of the gulf.

Miss Miller, a member of the senior class at Newcomb college, was a daughter of Dr. Walter Miller, dean of the academic colleges of Tulane university. She was drowned August 29 in the Tallulah river, near Tallulah Falls, Ga., while bathing with a party of friends.

Announcement of her funeral was made this afternoon by her family, who said that the burial at sea had been attended by only the simplest ceremony.

WILL DOUBLE CAPACITY ON THE PEACHTREE LINE

Passengers on the Whitehall and Peachtree street cars will no longer be forced to stand and swing to a strap while doing a young cake-walk on the stout lady's corn, for the Georgia Railway and Electric Company, out of the goodness of its heart, has decided to double the capacity of the cars running from West End to Brookwood, putting on long cars, such as are now used on the College Park, Buckhead and Decatur lines.

Sufficient cars to run on the schedule now in force on this, the most congested line in the city, are now in process of construction in the street car company's factory, and will be ready for use within the next thirty days. They will be put on immediately upon their completion.

With their advent will come an innovation in the nature of an extension platform, making possible an experiment with the "pay as you enter" system in force in many of the larger cities throughout the north and east. Under this system the conductor never leaves the rear platform of the car, collecting fares as the passengers enter. There are separate entrances for passengers boarding and getting off the car, so as to prevent the conductor's failing to collect any fares.

The "pay-as-you-enter" system will be put on on the Whitehall-Peachtree line as an experiment. As to whether or not it will prove satisfactory to the company's officials and the public as well is an open question. If it does not, it will be abandoned, but in any case, the large cars will continue to be run over the line, making a vast improvement over the present accommodations.

Listen to Your Stomach

It Gives Words of Most Serious Warning and Appeals Aloud for Help.

When by over-eating and excesses, poor cooking and imperfect mastication, late hours and physical abuse, your stomach is depleted of its strength and lies irritated and sick, then it is that this wonderful machine signals for help and begins to talk. Listen to it. Sometimes it says don't eat so much, don't give me such work to do.

Straight Talk From the Stomach.

The stomach does not talk like you would like it to, but you should listen and you should heed.

When foul breath makes people turn away from you, when pains and nausea come and go before and after meals, when gases distend your abdomen and affect your heart, when false appetite and abnormal craving comes to you, when the sight of a meal makes you sick and when many other events of like character happen, your stomach is talking.

It is trying to tell you that its peristaltic or churning muscles are irritated and unfit for duty, that alkali is filling the stomach and digesting and eating the membrane within, that the juices are not doing their work and consequently are permitting the food to lie for hours, eventually decaying and passing to the bowels, where such food is absorbed in a poisonous state and taken up by the lymphatic system and the blood.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will give to the stomach all it needs. They will ease up the peristaltic muscles, they dilute the alkali juices, enrich them and digest the food when the stomach is unable to do so.

Don't say they cannot help you. Why, these tablets will digest a hearty meal placed in a glass tube, without aid from the stomach.

One grain of a single ingredient will digest 3,000 grains of food. It is due your stomach to reply to its appeal. Send today for a trial package of these digesters. It will prove these tablets marvels, and the answer will come from your stomach. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package free by mail. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

YOUNG NEGRO PROVED CLEVER AT FORGING

System He Worked Would Have Done Credit to a Professional.

Horace Broomhead, a 10-year-old negro boy, faced Judge Broyles in the juvenile police court yesterday afternoon on the charge of carrying on a system of forgery that would have done credit to an old professional.

Horace worked for a butcher on Whitehall street, just below Garnett street, and was sent out to collect bills. Several instances were cited where he had raised the amounts, collected extra money and returned to his employer with the forgery erased and the proper figure rewritten on the bill. Customers began to complain of overcharges, and thus the culprit's graft was discovered.

Judge Broyles ordered the parent to thrash the boy and placed him under probation.

LARGE ESTATE LEFT BY SAMUEL F. PARROTT

Prominent Atlantan Made No Will---Family Names Administrators.

The late Samuel F. Parrott having left no will, letters of administration on his estate will be applied for in the ordinary's office.

The fact that there was no will was discovered when members of the family met Thursday morning for a conference, and it was decided that the administrators shall be Thomas S. Parrott, of Newnan, a nephew, and Attorney W. D. Ellis, Jr., of Atlanta.

Besides his interest in the Piedmont hotel, S. F. Parrott owned other stocks and interests in valuable property, and his life insurance amounts to $25,000, the entire estate approximating a large amount.

As Mr. Parrott was not married, the estate will be divided among his brothers and sisters and the nephew who will become joint administrator of the property.

MAJ. WM. E. WAILES ANSWERS FINAL CALL

Chief of Staff of General Wheeler During Civil War Dies at Dalton.

Dalton, Ga., September 29.—Major Wiliam E. Wailes, chief of the staff of General Joseph Wheeler in the confederate army during the civil war, died at his home in Dalton yesterday.

He was 73 years old, and his death removes all but one of General Wheeler's old staff officers.

His funeral and burial took place at Selma, Ala., his old home.

Beheaded by Explosion.

Uniontown, Pa., September 29.—Jacob Foreman, aged 37 years, was instantly decapitated and two other men injured, one seriously, by the bursting of a steam pipe at the Orient coke plant, at Orient, today. The three men were at work in the engine room, when, without warning, a 6-inch steam pipe burst, fragments of the iron being hurled with terrific force in all directions. One piece cut off Foreman's head.

Record Hay Crop.

Valdosta, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—It is said that the greatest hay crop ever made in this section is being harvested now. The seasons have been good for grasses, peas, velvet beans and other hay crops, and the farmers are showing more desire to save the hay than heretofore. Dealers here have sold more hay presses than ever before in one year.

Lassiter General Counsel.

Houston, Texas, September 29.—Newton H. Lassiter, of Fort Worth, was elected general counsel of the Trinity and Brazos Valley railorad at a meeting here yesterday of the diretcors of the road. He formerly was general counsel for the Rock Island system in Texas.

SHOOTS HIS FATHER TO PROTECT MOTHER

Alleged That D. J. Miller, of Floyd, Is Victim of Own Son.

Rome, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) D. J. Miller, a well-to-do farmer who lives near Everett Springs, in the upper end of Floyd county, was brought to a local sanatarium about noon today wounded in the abdomen, apparently having been shot with a shotgun.

Miller himself will not say how or exactly when he was wounded, but it is said that he was shot by his own son, the trouble starting between Miller and his wife with whom he had not been living for some time, but whom he was visiting at the moment.

As yet, no arrests have been made. Miller will die. The affair is somewhat mysterious, as another story says that Miller was shot from ambush by parties unknown, and was carried to his home by a neighbor, who found him in the roadside in an apparently dying condition. The latter story is not credited by the officers.

20-MINUTE SCHEDULE ON THE RIVER CAR LINE

New Simpson and Ashby Street Route Will Be Completed Soon.

Within the next ten days the new Simpson and Ashby street route of the river car line will be completed and the river cars will be immediately operated over this route, opening up a large section of territory, which has hitherto been without street car service. In addition, this will put into effect a twenty-minute instead of a thirty-minute schedule on the river line, reducing the running time from the center of the city to the Chattahoochee from forty-five to forty minutes.

Now the cars on the river line run out Marietta street to Jones avenue, thence to Gray street, to Kennedy street, to English avenue, to Bellwood avenue and thence to the river. Under the new route plan these cars will leave Jones avenue at Gray street, turn from Gray into Simpson street, where the new double track route will be followed along Simpson street for about ten blocks. Then the route turns into Ashby street and proceeds to Bellwood avenue, where the present river line tracks will be met and used on out to the Chattahoochee.

To supply the service where the river line cars will be taken off Kennedy street and English avenue, the Cooper street cars will be run out Marietta street to Jones avenue, thence to Gray street, to Kennedy street, to English avenue, to Bellwood avenue as far as Chapel road.

WASTE WATERS DID NOT CAUSE ODORS SAYS JUDGE

Recorder Exonerates Miller Stock Yards and White Provision Company.

Filth, which had been gathering for years in the bottom of the stream and not the waste water coming from the plants operated by the Miller Union Stock Yards and the White Provision Company, is responsible for the bad odors annoying the residents of Chastaintown. This was the decision of Recorder Nash Broyles yesterday afternoon after hearing the evidence against President W. H. White, of the provision company, and President J. W. Patterson, of the stock yards, the two plants on the charge of maintaining a nuisance.

Judge Broyles dismissed the charges after instructing the heads of the two plants to discontinue using the stream for its water closet sewage.

There were over thirty citizens of the community between Howell Mill road and Hemphill avenue to testify that the odor from the stream was so obnoxious as to compel them to close their windows and doors at night.

Through the testimony of experts from the state and city departments, the White Provision Company showed that the waste water flowing from its plant was practically pure and germless, and that the condition was caused by filth in the bed of the stream that has been there for years.

Mr. Patterson stated that the only waste from the stock yards going into the stream came from the watering troughs and three closets. The White Provision Company uses the stream for two closets.

MASS MEETING NAMES EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Mayor Moore's Friends Carry Wishes at Will in Committee Selection.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) At a largely attended mass meeting tonight at the city auditorium a new city executive committee was named. Judge W. D. Nottingham was made chairman of the meeting by election over Walter A. Harris. W. W. Elfe was named secretary. On motion of A. E. Barnes a committee of eight men was sent out to select nominees for the executive committee. This committee was composed of A. E. Barnes, M. H. Taylor, Leon Dure, J. L. Lawton, R. K. Hines, W. W. Williams, R. E. Casson and O. H. Cabaniss.

The executive committee as nominated, follows: First ward, Dewitt McCrary, W. S. Simmons and W. W. Billings; second ward, Dr. E. L. Brown, W. R. Barnes and T. F. Sheridan; third ward, P. L. Hix, W. O. Kinney and S. C. Moore; fourth ward, J. T. Willis, J. J. Waxelbaum and W. A. Taylor. W. D. Nottingham was named from the city-at-large.

This body was named by the meeting without a dissenting vote. A motion by Ellisworth Hall to have future executive committees named by popular election was tabled.

The meeting was largely an administrative affair and friends of Mayor Moore were enabled to carry their wishes at will. It was an extremely orderly session.

Haddock's Store Entered.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) Sheriff Robertson, of Bibb county, has been notified of an attempt to rob the store of Middlebrooks Bros. at Haddocks last night, and an immediate effort was made to assist the Jones county authorities. An attempt to rob the safe was frustrated by citizens who heard the efforts to enter the safe.

FIRST POINT LOST BY MONEY LENDERS

Judge Roan Overrules All Demurrers in the Test Case.

In a test case yesterday, the money lenders of the city, against whom 146 indictments were found for usurious practices, lost the first point, when Judge L. S. Roan overruled all the special and general demurrers presented.

The demurrers passed upon were those submitted by the King Brothers, who pleaded that they had not conducted a loan business, but had purchased salaries outright, and they contended further that the act of 1908, under which the law charges are brought, is unconstitutional, in that it limits a citizen's right to barter a chose in action.

Judge Roan's decision means that the test cases chosen by Solicitor Hil will go before a jury unless the decision be reversed by a higher court.

BROTHERHOOD MEETS BONSALL PRESIDING

St. Andrew Brotherhood Elects Officers---More Than 10,000 Present.

Nashville, Tenn., September 29.—The twenty-fifth annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the United States opened here this morning. The convention was called to order by President Edward H. Bonsall, of Philadelphia. The following officers of the convention and committes were elected:

Chairman, Edward H. Bonsall, Philadelphia; vice chairman, J. C. Loomis, Louisville; second vice chairman, Charles S. Martin, Nashville; third vice chairman, S. B. Robinson, Los Angeles; fourth vice chairman, A. G. Christensen, Jersey City; secretaries, F. O. Zesinger, Philadelphia; W. N. Sturgess, Chicago; J. S. Lombard, New Orleans.

Committees on resolutions, Dr. W. C. Sturges, chairman; Colorado Springs; A. V. Wood, Brunswick, Ga.; W. De Haven, Memphis; Charles Hewitt Smith, Providence, R. I.

Committee on nominations of new council, Franklin S. Edwards, Philadelphia, chairman; J. G. Minnegerde, Jr., Louisville; George Higginson, Jr., Winnetka, Ill.; W. S. Bissell, Detroit; John Pritchard, Memphis.

Committee on credentials, E. M. Fisher, Nashville, chairman; R. J. Disesway, Newberry, N. C.; C. Aubrey, Nicklas, New York City; C. C. Campbell, Jackson, Miss.; F. F. Bingham, Bradford, Ind.

There were addresses of welcome by Governor M. R. Patterson, E. H. Lindsey, president of the Nashvile board of trade; Chancellor J. H. Kirkland, of Vanderbilt University, and Bishop Thomas F. Gailor, of Tennessee.

President Bonsall made an address of appreciation of the efforts of the local people in behalf of the convention.

It is estimated that the convention will bring 1,000 visitors to Nashville.

At the afternoon session Dr. Llewellyn N. Carey, of Philadelphia, delivered the annual charge to the Brotherhood, presenting the possibilities of the work. The speaker deprecated that such a large per cent of the boys of the country are outside of the church and dealt with the needs of the day.

A general conference followed. The keynote was the most effective methods of spreading the gospel. At close of conference Bishop Gray, of Florida, pronounced benediction.

Mass meetings with prominent speakers are a big feature of the convention. The powerful sermon of Bishop C. E. Woodcock, of Kentucky, before noonday men's mass meeting on "Temptation" attracted much attention.

SOLDIER MEETS DEATH IN EXTRAORDINARY WAY

Anton Binsfield, Wounded Twice by Same Bullet, Last Wound Being Fatal.

The funeral of Anton Binsfield, aged 32 years, who was accidentally shot on Tuesday afternoon at Fort McPherson, was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Poole's chapel. The services were conducted by the Schiller lodge of Odd Fellows, and the body was interred at Oakland cemetery.

An extraordinary chain of events led up to the death of Mr. Binsfield. The accident occurred as he was opening the door of his wardrobe, his revolver being jarred off the shelf, where it had been lying, and being discharged by its impact with the floor. The bullet, flying upward, struck Mr. Binsfield in the right groin, making but a slight flesh wound and coming out at a point two inches above the spot it had entered. It then continued upward, however, struck the belt buckle the deceased was wearing, was deflected into the body again and finally lodged in his left lung, leaving a fatal wound.

The deceased was formerly a member of company G, of the Seventeeth infantry, but recently had been in the quartermaster's department. His home was in Kansas City.

Patten's Brother Dead.

Chicago, September 29.—George W. Patten, the millionaire grain operator who died last night of tuberculosis at the home of his brother, James A. Patten, in Evanston, left a fortune estimated at $5,000,000, the greater part it is said, will be left to public charities, including a large donation for the furtherance of the anti-tuberculosis campaign.

BANKS FORM PLAN TO HANDLE COTTON

Bills of Lading to Be Used Without Further Trouble.

Savannah, Ga., September 29.—Savannah cotton, banking and transportation people believe that there is now no danger of serious trouble regarding the financing of cotton bills of lading. It is understood that the following plan will be followed by them, and that it will serve to move the cotton through this port without hitch as heretofore.

It is believed that the agents of the railroads and steamship companies will certify that they have the cotton in their possession, and the banks will certify that they saw the agents of the steamships and railroads sign the bills of lading.

So far as Savannah is concerned, there will be a time and place fixed for the agents of the transportation lines and the banks to meet each day and execute the documents. This, it is taken, certifies that the cotton is in hand and is sufficient guarantee.

Battleship Nebraska Won.

Washington, September 29.—The battleship Nebraska is announced as the trophy winner and the Montana, California and Mississipi as star ships which attained 95 per cent of the multiple of the trophy winner, in a statement given out by the navy department today on the results of the engineering competition, 1909-10, for the battleship trophy. The Colorado stood lowest in the list. The Preble won the destroyer trophy.

MOTORMAN R. L. SNYDER EXONERATED BY JUDGE

R. L. Snyder, motorman of the trolley car causing the death of 2-year-old Harry Lefkoff Monday night, was exonerated of blame for the accident by Judge Nash Broyles, in the police court, yesterday afternoon. The Lefkoff child lived at 232 Woodward avenue, and stepped in front of Snyder's car as it rounded the corner of Capitol and Woodward avenues, a few doors from the Lefkoff residence.

Witnesses said that the motorman acted as quickly as possible in stopping the car.

Layne Released.

Lynchburg, Va., September 29.—H. H. Layne, who was arrested here about a week ago and detained for the Jacksonville, Fla., authorizing under the name of Guy Walker, on charge of the theft of $600 at that place, was released when it was shown that his arrest was due to mistaken identity.

SUN CASTS SHADOW OF SOLDIER NEAR CONSTITUTION BUILDING

There are a number of oddities and novelties about Atlanta, if any person would take the trouble to look for them. One of these oddities or novelties, as the case may be, was discovered yesterday in front of The Constitution building.

A careful observer, while gazing out a sidedoor, saw a shadow which immediately attracted his attention. The dark space cast on the street by the sun at first assumed the shape of an old man's face, his countenance indicating disgust. The tongue appeared as if it were hanging out of the mouth.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock the silhouette began to change in shape until there was revealed the exact image of a continental soldier, carrying his gun over the shoulder. The expression on the face had then changed to that of satisfaction.

This shadow is made by the cupola and flagstaff on the building on the southwest corner of Alabama and Forsyth streets. If the rays of Old Sol are not obstructed by a cloud, this figure may be seen any day at the time mentioned.

FUNERAL OF MR. COYNE.

Services at Immaculate Conception Church Today.

The funeral services of Charles M. Coyne, president of the Electric Construction Company, who died Wednesday morning as the result of injuries received in a fall, will be held this morning in the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Rev. Father John E. Gunn, of the Sacred Heart church, will officiate. The interment will be in Oakland cemetery. A delegation from the Elks, of which Mr. Coyne was a prominent member, will meet at the church at 9:45 o'clock. Mr. Coyne was also a member of the Knights of Columbus, and many members of that organization will attend the funeral.

JUDGE SHARMAN DIES AT THOMASTON HOME

Was Oldest Citizen of Upson County---Close of a Distinguished Career.

Thomaston, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Judge T. S. Sharman, who has been critically ill for several weeks, died at his home in this city Thursday morning at 6 o'clock. He was the oldest citizen of the county, lacking only a few months of being 93 years of age.

His funeral will be conducted probably Friday morning from the Baptist church with Masonic rites. Judge Sharman has had a distinguished career and held many positions of trust in this county.

He was a survivor of the Indian war of 1835. He represented Upson county in the senate and lower house of representatives before the civil war.

He had been married five times and has a number of descendants.

FINAL PRACTICE FOR THE JACKETS

In Preparation for Game With Gordon on Saturday.

The Yellow Jackets will hold their final practice today in preparation for the first game of the season, which will take place at Ponce de Leon on Saturday.

The Gordon cadets, from Barnesville, will be the opponents of the Jackets, and a shifty little team this eleven always is. They will prove good practice for Heisman's squad.

Leuhrman is out of the game with a broken rib; Montague and Johnson have sprained ankles, while Sinclair, the big lineman, and Robertson, the half back, have not rounded into shape as yet.

With the exception of these men, the Jackets will present a strong lineup on the field. Who will start the game is not known. However, Coach Heisman has signified his intention of using at least thirty men in the game.

LOCUST GROVE WILL PLAY RED AND BLACK

Locust Grove, Ga., September 29.—(Speial.)—Locust Grove goes to Athens Saturday for a game with the University of Georgia. Some of them are still limping from the effects of the Mercer game, but the injuries are slight. The team that played Mercer will line up against Georgia with one exception—Griffith will be put in at right guard in the place of Cummins. Saturday week the Boys' High school of Atlanta comes here for a game. Gordon has also offered a date here. It is not known definitely whether the challenge will be accepted or not. Games with Riverside and Georgia Military academy will be arranged.

MERCER BAPTISTS PRUNING FOR CLEMSON

Mercer University, Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—The Baptists are hard at work getting ready for the contest on Saturday with Clemson. Coach Stroud discovered a few weak points in his squad on Saturday in the game with Locust Grove.

The line-up for Saturday will be practically the same as last Saturday. McDaniel, captain; Dunaway and Binion have struck their real stride; in fact, the whole team is rapidly developing.

Manager Gresham arrived Monday and is lending his energies to the work with a whole-heartedness that spells success.

The team will leave Friday morning for Clemson. The student body is showing good spirit this season, and are suporting the team in grand style. They are wishing for victory Saturday.

FRIENDS OF FULLER ORGANIZE A CLUB

Friends of "Jim" Fuller met at 12 East Mitchell street for the purpose of organizing a club to work in the interest of his candidacy for city marshal in the coming election of October 21. The following officers were elected: S. G. Davies, chairman; E. C. Bell, secretary; I. Springer, treasurer. Mr. Fuller's friends expect to hold a meeting each week, and all those who are interested in his candidacy are welcome.

NAVY YARD ELEVEN LOOKING FOR GAMES

Charleston, S. C., September 29.—(Special.)—The navy yard team at this city has been organized, with one of the fastest elevens in their history and are open to dates from all first-class elevens. For games, address Mr. Marvin, Power House, Navy Yard, Charleston, S. C.

BILLY SMITH HAS SIGNED TO MANAGE CHATTANOOGA

Buffalo, N. Y., September 29.—Billy Smith, manager of the Buffalo Eastern League team, today signed a two-year contract with Chattanooga, in the Southern League. Smith was manager of Atlanta, winner of the pennant in the Southern League, last year.

MISS WEBBER WILL RACE ON SPEEDWAY

Special Meet Arranged for "Climax" Star Today.

It isn't every day that a person of enough consequence arrives in Atlanta to win the signal honor of a private race meet at the Atlanta Speedway.

The exceptional person who is to be the recipient of this signal and unique honor is Miss Florence Webber, of Indianapolis, Ind., leading woman of the Climax company, now playing at the Orpheum.

Miss Webber is a grand, good actress, all right, but if she had Sara Bernhardt lashed to the pump it would not get her a private meet on Atlanta's "billion-dollar track" on the strength of her histrionic ability. But, because Miss Webber is likewise an automobile driver of exceptional ability, and because she has starred in automobile races in her home in Indianapolis, she is to have the combined pleasure of being guest and participant of a little exhibition performance at the local track.

It wasn't until an effort was made to scare up some racing cars that it was eralized exactly how many really classy racing machines there are on hand in Atlanta.

The king pin is Asa Candler, Jr.'s Flat "60," one of the speediest, if not the very fastest, stock cars in America. As a strong second choice is Mr. Candler's Renault. Both these machines will be available for the Webber meet. Another star performer is the E-M-F "Bullet," property of the local E-M-F branch. Few, if any, faster stock cars are on the turf today. Another car that will be out in full force is the racy little Buick that is driven by R. T. Connerat, of the local Buick branch. This car is an absolute wonder in its way, and can show its heels to almost every car in Atlanta, no matter what its size.

Other racing cars are available at a moment's notice. One is the Pope-Hartford that cleaned up everything in its class and a lot out of its class in Atlanta's local meet. Another is that grand Firestone-Columbus which was operated to such good advantage in the local meet, and which won two prizes. Another good racer in Atlanta is the speedy Parry owned by the Consolidated Motor Company. Still another is the famous W. J. Stoddard National.

So it is a cinch to round up a bunch of tried speedsters for a go on the Speedway.

Miss Webber will golf on the course of the Atlanta Athletic Club this morning, and in the afternoon will act alternately as driver and spectator on the Atlanta track.

TED COY KICKS WELL; PICKS UP LOOSE COIN

New York, September 20.—Tey Coy, Yale's head coach, walked out on the football field at Lakeview the other day. He was in street dress, but carried a football. Taking his stand at the 55-yard line and assuming position for a drop kick for goal, he turned to the Yale squad and said laughingly:

"Make your bets; I'll cover them all!"

"How many times?" asked a husky youngster.

"Only one," say Coy.

Then one by one the members of the squad came forward and each dropped his money on the ground at the coach's side until there was quite a little pile of quarters and halves; there was only one green fellow, and the denomination of that was not large. Coy gravely counted over the heap and reaching into his pocket, drew out an equal sum.

Stepping back to the 50-yard line he made the kick without a moment's hesitation. The ball flew straight to the mark and a pretty goal was scored on the first try.

Amid the cheers of the squad Coy pocketed his winnings and strolled off the field to don his playing togs.

MME. SCHUMANN HEINK TO SING AT AUDITORIUM

Popular Singer Will Be Heard Here Night of November 4.

Mme. Schumann-Heink will sing at the Auditorium-Armory in concert on the night of November 4. This announcement will be received with pleasure by the music-loving public of Atlanta and Georgia, as there is no more popular singer in America. On former visits she has been greeted by large and enthusiastic audiences and this opportunity to again hear her in concert will bring hundreds from all over the state.

Safety Appliances for Roads.

Washington, September 29.—Two hundred railroad officials and operatives from all parts of the country, at a hearing before the interstate commerce commission today, discussed uniform standards of safety appliances. Within a fortnight the commission, by law, must issue an order designating the number, location and application of safety appliances on railroad cars, to comply with the intent of congress to provide facilities that will adequately protect life and property.

MOGUL JOSEPH RAPS KAVANAUGH

Says Fine in Juul Matter Was "Arbitrarily Administered."

Montgomery, Ala., September 29.—(Special.)—Immediately upon his return from North Carolina this afternoon, President E. B. Joseph, of the Montgomery baseball club, declared that he had no idea of paying the fine which had been so "arbitrarily administered" by Judge Kavanaugh, of the Southern League, against the Montgomery club because of the Juul melee. The president declares that the play was a grand stand one altogether.

His statement follows:

"No, I haven't been worried over the Juli matter. It is a pure case of 'much-ado-about-nothing.' Suppose that I had an enemy I would like to sandbag and some other man has the same idea, and one goes so far as to promise this fellow a good sandbagging when the opportunity offers, but fail to carry out his promise. Could I be convicted for the offense?

"Well, there is just about as much logic in the much-heralded Juul episode that was given the press before notice was given the club.

"In my opinion, it is one of the greatest grand stand plays ever attempted, and you can tell the people that the Montgomery baseball club has no intention of paying the fine so arbitrarily administered, nor the remotest idea of forfeiting its franchise."

Little Rock, Ark., September 29.—Because of a delay in the delivery of the notice of penalty assessed, officials of the Montgomery club of the Southern League, will be allowed five days' grace to disprove the charges of Pitcher Juul, of last season's team that he received $25 a month more salary than his contract stipulated, or pay a fine of $1,250.

THEATERS

At the Orpheum.

Playing to a large audience whose enthusiasm and interest was manifested from curtain to curtain, "The Climax" opened its engagement at the Orpheum last night.

The story of the play is woven around the life of a young girl whose rapidly developing voice, under the tutorship of her uncle, gives promise of a great career on the stage. The only defect in the voice is an organic trouble of the throat, which a specialist says may be eliminated by a slight surgical operation, with only one chance in a thousand that the operation may prove unsuccessful.

The young doctor, who is in love with the girl, finds that her voice and her desire to achieve fame through its medium are his only rivals, although the uncle's youthful son is, also, very much in love with both the girl and the voice.

The operation for the throat is undertaken, and, to secure her consent to marry him, the young doctor, after several days have passed, informs her that it has been unsuccessful, and that she will never sing again. Through mental suggestion, he makes her believe he is right, but on the eve of the wedding she discovers she has been deceived. Whether she forgives the young man as her uncle says she will is left to the imagination, but there is a strong suspicion that she does.

Miss Florence Webber, as Adelina Von Hagen, the pupil, sustains her rather difficult role in splendid style, and through her rendition of the "Song of the Soul" satisfactorily proved that she has a voice of more than usual quality.

Arthur Cogliser, as Luigi Golfanti, the uncle and teacher, played that part to the queen's own taste, and won hearty applause from the audience.

Chester Barnett, as Pietro Golfanti, his son, excellently portrays the ups and downs—mostly downs—of the youthful aspirant for the heart and hand of the idol of his heart. There's many a laugh in watching the struggles of this young man to breast the current of love which is gradually sweeping him on to what he believes will be the eternal ruin of the world and all therein contained should his love go unrequitted.

Thomas Sinclaire, as the doctor, is an actor of no mean ability, and as the fourth member he fits in excellently, making a perfect cast.

"The Climax" is a splendid show, and the company presenting it is a good deal above the average. Those who see it will find it has all that has been claimed for it.

"A Gentleman From Mississippi."

Continued success attends "A Gentleman from Mississippi," now in its third big year of popularity, and which comes to the Grand Tuesday, Wednesday of next week, with a matinee Wednesday. A clean, wholesome play, rich in comedy and optimistic in spirit, it has a timely message, and in addition it is a splendid evening's entertainment. In the company are such well-known players as Robert A. Fischer, John Butler, John Arthur, W. H. Townsend, Arthur H. Ebbets, Thomas A. Irwin, Ernest Evers, Frank Hartwell, E. H. Bender, Walter Pollock, George H Palmer, Emma Meffert, Leah Beard, Jane Otey, Jane Fernley, Beulah Watson, Lute Adams and others.

Seats will go on sale tomorrow.

"Queen of the Moulin Rouge."

Snitz Edwards, the short comedian, is playing the role of the ex-king Sergius in Samuel E. Rork's sensational musical triumph, "The Queen of the Moulin Rouge," which has been the talk of the American stage for the past two years. The part, owing to the plot of the piece, is a Protean one, requiring his appearance is seven distinct characters. Edwards plays "straight," and the heroic proportions of some of the roles introduce an element of the ridiculous, which is irresistable when played by a man under 5 feet high. This is the first season "The Queen of the Moulin Rouge" has played outside the big eastern cities. It comes to the Grand tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night.

Mrs. Stuart Declines to Serve.

Richmond, Va., September 29.—For a reason which is not clear, but presumably because she is not now in Norfolk, Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, widow of the great cavalry leader in the war between the states, has declined the appointment tendered her to be the sponsor for the state-at-large aboarding meeting of the grand camp of the confederate veterans in Norfolk.

MERCER LOSES TWO STAR PLAYERS

West and Mills Fall Short in Their Studies.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) Mercer is all astir over the loss of West, the heavy left guard, whose units are not coming up to suit the faculty. He is short in Latin and English, and despite his struggles, he will not be there when the team meets Clemson Saturday. Mills, whose merit as a left guard has been unquestioned, is also in the shute for the same reason. He could not make it in Latin. Both these men have developed into fine players. Baird, a handy man at quarter and half, has a bad finger, and is out. Stroud is sending his team through every night, however, and is going after Clemson Saturday with great show of grit.

SOUTHERN RY. OFFICIALS INSPECT PENN. TUNNEL

Also Inspect New York Station, the Terminal of Southern Trains.

New York, September 29.—(Special.) President W. W. Finley, accompanied by a large party of officials of the Southern Railway Company and its affiliated lines throughout the southeastern states, spent this afternoon inspecting the tunnel system and New York passenger station of the Pennsylvania railroad which will be the New York terminal of the through passenger trains operated by the Southern railway between New York and the south.

The visit of the Southern's officials was made on the invitation of Second Vice President Samuel Rea, of the Pennsylvania, and the party was escorted by Mr. Rea, assisted by Secretary A. J. County and George Gibbs, chief engineer of electric traction. After thoroughly inspecting the great station at Thirty-fourth street and Seventh avenue, the party boarded a special train and was carried through the tunnels leading to the Jersey side and Long Island. Preceding the inspection trip President Finley entertained the visiting representatives at luncheon at the Railroad club at the Hudson Terminal building.

Though thoroughly informal this luncheon was marked by a talk by President Finley in which he expressed high appreciation of the courtesy of the Pennsylvania railroad officers in affording this opportunity for this inspection and he also paid tribute to the great achievement of the Pennsylvania company in providing facilities by which the Southern railway will be enabled for the first time to land passengers from all parts of the south in the center of New York city without a change of cars.

Judge Elbert N. Cary, president of the United States Steel Corporation, and a director of the Southern Railway Company, made an address in which he told of his great confidence in President Finley and of his high opinion of the organization of the Southern railway.

CITY ITEMS.

Badge Is Sent Fairbanks.—Charles F. Fairbanks, a native of Illinois, a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, a long-time resident of Atlanta, and for more than a dozen years a clerk in the internal revenue department in the Georgia district, has just received an official badge of the Grand Army of the Republic held at Atlantic City. Mr. Fairbanks was unable to attend the recent session of the Grand Army, but on the records his presence is acknowledged because all department commanders are recognized as life members of the Grand Army. In 1905 Mr. Fairbanks was commander of the Georgia department, and that entitles him to a life membership and to the badge worn at any Grand Army encampment.

Negro Steals Canary.—"It was naught but a bird in a gilded cage," but at the same time Professor William C. Lowe, of the Boys' High school, would like to get it back again. "It" refers to Professor Lowe's canary bird, which was stolen from the veranda of his home, 328 Houston street, last night by a negro. The professor heard a noise outside, and when he opened the front door saw a black running down the steps. It was not until later that the loss was discovered. The little pet is of golden hue, but is differentiated from other canary birds by a black spot on the side of its head.

Pays His Assessment.—Malvern Hill, who is one of the candidates in the race for the position of city recorder, yesterday paid his assessment fee.

Colored Concert.—Bessie Brown, of New York; Lily Hutchinson, the girl who sang before the stars of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and the Baltimore Quartet will be the stars of the colored concert held tonight at the Auditorium.

Fire at Uncle Remus'.—Quick work by the fire department in putting out a blaze discovered on the fourth floor of Uncle Remus' Magazine building, on Forsyth street, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, prevented what might have been a serious conflagration. Officer Adams discovered the fire, and notified the fire department, which soon arrived on the scene, and, by means of the aerial ladder and chemical apparatus, had little trouble in extinguishing it.

Revival Being Held.—Rev. A. C. Shuler continues to draw large crowds to the revival meetings he is conducting every afternoon and evening at the Capitol View Baptist church. Mr. Shuler's talks have a quality which never fails to interest his audience.

and contraband and sent him to the hospital. Next day, Burt was operated upon and was also reported three times by Longan. Bradley told Captain Longan the circumstances, but the captain would not believe him, and started in on a tirade against Burt.

"Fourth, one of the cadets visited across the hall in the barracks. Captain Longan thought erroneously that it was a first-class man, whereupon he reported the wrong man. The first-class man explained in writing that the report was a mistake.

Accused Cadet of Lying.

"Captain Longan, calling him up, said: 'I don't believe what you say in your explanation. You've got to prove your statements.' One inviolable rule of West Point is that when a cadet gives his word of honor, it is always taken without question. No greater affront can be put upon a cadet than to question his veracity.

"The final grievance was when Captain Longan made 'area birds' walk in the rain. Under this form of punishments two hours on Wednesday afternoon and four hours on Saturday afternoon. It is the immemorial custom that they can walk on the stoop of the barracks when it rains. But Captain Longan lined them out in the downpour, he staying under cover, dry and smoking a pipe, and said:

"'You men have got to walk in the rain, for I'll show you who is boss around here.' Moreover he refused to let the men oil their guns, and made the corporals take the rags out of the bores, so that the cadets had to clean off rust for days afterward.

The First "Silence."

"The first 'silence' was spontaneous and fairly without the element of premeditated conspiracy. The men simply refused to eat or to speak a word while Longan was in the room. It was wrong, insubordinate, but human. It was a tacit rebellion against what the cadets felt to the tyranny. The men do not regret their action. Their attitude is that their code has been broken and their word questioned.

"If every cadet is called before the court of inquiry and asked if the above statements are true, he will answer affirmatively, though not a man of them has yet consented to say more to the court than 'we have formed a dislike for this officer.'

"The men resent Captain Longan's explanation that he was a new man and that the cadets wanted to break him in, and they feel that he has not made a correct statement, but they have great confidence in the justice and common sense of General Barry, the superintendent, who, they believe, will put a different light upon the situation within another week."

TRIAL OF HASKELL SUDDENLY CLOSED

McAlester, Okla., September 29.—The trial of Governor C. N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, in the Muskogee town lot cases came to a sudden end today, when the government announced that under the restrictions laid down by the court it would be unable to make out a case against Haskell or any of his codefendants.

Governor Haskell and three other defendants were charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury with "conspiracy to defraud the government," in the disposal of town lot sites at Muskegee, Okla. It was charged that by the false registration of the names of persons scattered over the country they secured title to about six hundred lots. The dismissal of all of the cases today was attributed by the government attorneys to their inability to confine their proof to the period of limitation as fixed by Federal Judge John A. Marshall. Judge Marshall ruled that under a recent circuit court of appeals decision, rendered in the Lenabaugh case, the prosecution would have to prove conscious participation by Haskell with the other defendants during the three years prior to the return of the indictment which was in May, 1909.

PUTNAM BOY ELECTED TO TECH PROFESSORSHIP

Eatonton, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Following upon the recent election of Professor Charles E. Little, a former Putnam county boy, to the presidency of Peabody college, at Nashville, Tenn., during the past summer, another Putnam county son, Will Blount Marshall, of this city, and a graduate of class 1910 at the Georgia School of Technology, has just been elected to a professorship at his alma mater.

Mr. Marshall, after graduating at the Eatonton public schools, entered Tech and throughout his four years' stay there made an unusually brilliant record.

He is a grandson of Colonel Davis Singleton, a former representative from Putnam and one of the most highly esteemed citizens.

CARROLL ACQUITTED OF THE LIBEL CHARGE

Des Moines, Iowa, September 29.—The jury in the libel case against Governor B. F. Carroll, returned a verdict of not guilty tonight. Governor Carroll was placed on trial a week ago charged with criminally libelling John Cownie, former chairman of the state board of control.

The governor, on May 24 authorized the publication in a Des Moines newspaper of an article stating that Mr. Cownie had sold diseased cattle in the markets of Omaha; that he had let state contracts without receiving estimates, and that he had been unduly familiar with girls at the Mitchellville Industrial school.

QUICK JUSTCE METED MRS. WISE'S ASSAILANT

Montgomery, Ala., September 29.—(Special.)—Quick justice was meted to Dave Halstead, an 18-year-old negro of Coffee county, today when a sentence of twenty years was imposed upon him after his confession that he had attempted a criminal assault Tuesday night upon Mrs. Sol Wise, the young wife of a prominent farmer of that section.

By order of Circuit Judge Pierce, a special grand jury was empaneled at Elba Thursday morning for the case, the negro was immediately indicted, and plad guilty, aking a clean breast of the crime and describing how he effected entrance into the room of Mrs. Wise while her husband was away.

Twenty minutes after sentence was passed he was brought to Montgomery for safekeeping, pending commitment to the state penitentiary. The crime occurred eight miles south of Elba. The negro was a plantation hand employed by Mr. Wise.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL THE MARKETS

AN EARLY DECLINE FOLLOWED BY RALLY

Cotton Market Closed Very Steady--November One Point Off---Others Up.

New York, September 29.—An early decline in the cotton market was followed by a sharp advance, but only the late months sold above the high level of yesterday, and the close was off from the best, under realizing and selling for a reaction, although the final tone was very steady at a net decline of 1 point on November, with other deliveries 3 to 11 points net higher.

Business was very active during the morning, and after opening steady at a decline of 1@15 points with the near months relatively easy in sympathy with Lierpool, prices advanced on covering by some of yesterday's late sellers and a renewal of aggressive support from prominent Wall street and western operators. The cables were lower than due on the New York close of yesterday, but showed no such weakness as would indicate that the English trade is taking a serious view of the Lancashire situation, and this probably encouraged buying here, while support was also influenced by further bullish private crop reports. Offerings were very heavy, being not only in the way of realizing, but also representing rather more confidence on the part of reactionists, yet they were readily absorbed, and it was not until the market showed a net gain of from 9 to 15 points with January and later months selling a point or so above the high level of yesterday that there was any reaction of consequence. Then demand became a little less active, and prices eased off 6 or 7 points from the top under continued realizing and a little selling from spot people who were supposed to be operating on the failure of southern spot markets to respond more readily to the local advance. Only 2 or 3 of the southern markets reported early were ⅛c higher and some of the more important markets were unchanged, with Savannah easy.

It was reported during the day that the National Ginners' Association made the condition of the crop 66 per cent, against 70.8 last month, and another private estimate issued made the condition 65.4 per cent, comparing with the official figures of 58.5 last year. This authority also estimated the crop at 10,600,000 bales, with an average frost date. The West Indian storm was reported still moving westward, but attracted less attention than yesterday.

Receipts at the ports today 63,822 bales, against 29,990 last week and 67,989 last year. For the week 325,000, against 241,946 last week and 380,881 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 8,285, against 6,113 last year, and at Houston 17,750, against 13,884 last year.

Cotton closed quiet and unchanged; middling uplands 13.75; middling gulf 14.00; sales 5,727 bales.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, September 29.—Spot cotton steady and unchanged; sales on the spot 900 bales; to arrive, 1,750; low ordinary 10, nominal; ordinary 10 13-16, nominal; good ordinary 12¾; strict good ordinary 12⅝; low middling 12 15-16; strict low middling 13 3-16; middling 13 7-16; strict middling 13 9-16; good middling 13 1-16; strict good middling 13⅞; middling fair 14⅛; middling fair to fair 14⅛; fair 14⅝, nominal. Receipts 7,285; stock 27,421.

Cotton futures opened steady, 3 points down to 6 points up. Cables were about as expected. Selling orders were rather heavy on the first call in the near months, but the demand was strong for the more distant positions, which gave rise to the belief that certain interests were transferring their long commitments in order to avoid senders of actual cotton. After the call there was no special selling. The market was quiet. Bears were disappointed because their predictions concerning the Lancashire lockout were not fulfilled, and in order to balance things they called attention to the fact that neither the ocld awve nor the gulf storm, that some bulls were talking about yesterday, had materialized. The weather map was dry, and this stimulated buying to some extent. At the end of the first half hour of trading the more active months were 10 to 11 points up.

Very bullish pres reports concerning Arkansas, which stated that the boll weevil had destroyed all hope of a top crop, and low crop estimates from prominent New York brokerage firms strengthened the market after the first half hour of trading and gave it a steady tone during the remainder of the morning session. The market seemed healthy after the liquidation by longs yesterday, and a moderate buying movement served to put prices 17 to 22 points up around the middle of the morning. Profit-taking by longs began at this level, and checked the advance, but did not bring about much of a reaction. Later the rumor that the National Ginners' Association was out with a condition report of 66 caused fresh short covering, and at noon prices were 12 to 19 points over yesterday's close.

In the afternoon session considerable profit-taking was in sidence, and the leading bulls made no effort to sustain the market in the face of the selling which brought about a reaction of 10 to 12 points from the highest of the day. A large export movement from several ports gave the market steadiness in spite of the liquidation. At 2 o'clock prices were 8 to 12 points over yesterday's close.

The close was steady at a net advance of 10 to 14 points.

Dry Goods.

New York, September 29.—The cotton goods market rules steady and quiet. Bleached goods will remain unchanged in price after October 1, to which date the price was guaranteed. Staple prints in sub-counts are being ordered freely. Raw silk is steadily going higher and is now about 8 per cent above the average values of two weeks ago. The improvement in the demand for silk fabrics continues. Linings are dull.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, September 29.—New buying, in anticipation of a bullish bureau report, absorbed the heavy profit taking which has occurred from time to time during the day. These buyers have at times taken the liquidation as almost personal, so sure do they feel of higher prices after the report is published. October was relatively easy, as it became evident that tenders would be made from the recent receipts at this port on both September and October. The temper of the trade is distinctly in favor of higher prices. The sellers at the low level early in the month are now conspicuous buyers.

Liverpool is expected to become a buyer during October, and the threatened lockout is thought to indicate this action.

GAINS IN STOCKS LATE IN THE SESSION

Reading Loses Its Prominence and Some Specialties Were Taken Up.

New York, September 29.—Speculation in stocks resumed an extremely listless tone today, when Reading fell back from its excessive prominence. This change was only by comparison with the last few days that stock, United States Steel and Union Pacific retaining their old predominance, with dealings of more than half the aggregate for the whole market. Several so-called specialties, including public utilities and some low-grade non-dividend payers were taken up for exploitation in a mild way. The principal gains were established shortly before the closing, which was strong.

The course of the preparations for the October money settlements absorbed a large share of attention in the financial district to the exclusion of stock speculation. Another rise in the money rate indicated that a lessening of loanable funds might be a positive influence in the dullness of the market. The fact that the rise in money rates was not confined to the call loan division carries the implication that the conditions are not merely temporary, or having to do with the October first payments. Time loans for the near maturities, especially those which just carry over the end of the present year, are notably affected. A somewhat easier tone for commercial paper is ascribed to a lessening of supply rather than to an increase in the demand from buyers. The subtreasury's requisitions on the banks are running very heavy, the withdrawals since the last bank statement having reached a total of more than $8,000,000. The government institution was a creditor at the clearing house again this morning to the amount of nearly half a million dollars, presaging another large withdrawal of cash from the banks tomorrow.

On the foreign exchange side the course of foreign money markets holds sales against relief for the local money market. The full 1 per cent advance in the official discount rate of the Bank of England today proved to have been amply foreseen yesterday, and it was of no further influence on speculative sentiment. The signal must be heeded, nevertheless, and its warning effect was emphasized by the weekly statement of the Bank of France, showing inroads on the gold supply of that institution, in common with the English bank, to supply the Egyptian demand on account of the large cotton movement. The private discount rate in Paris rose a fraction today.

A feature of the day's markets was the liquidation of corn in response to the excellent weather conditions for the completion of the process of maturing that crop. The increasing prospect of a bumper crop of that cereal had a helpful effect on stocks, especially those immediately concerned with the movement and use of corn.

The special weakness of American Sugar was taken to be due to an apprehension that the case of the government against that corporation may be made a prominent feature in the political campaign in New York state this fall.

The firm money market has not checked the improved demand for bonds. A feature is the reappearance on the tape of many investment issues which have been dormant for a long time past. The tone was strong. Total sales, par value, $2,658,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Treasury Statement.

Mexican dollars 45.

Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds strong.

Foreign Finances.

London, September 29.—As had been anticipated, the Bank of England raised its discount rate to 4 per cent today. The advance was due chiefly to the large outflow of gold to Egypt and Turkey, the prospective Indian demand and the fact that the weekly arrivals are being steadily absorbed by the continent. The recent advance in the German bank rate and yesterday's smart rise in market discounts hastened the bank's decision.

The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes:

Total reserve decreased £2,066,000.
Circulation increased £323,000.
Bullion decreased £1,742,484.
Other securities increased £1,318,000.
Other deposits decreased £1,097,000.
Public deposits increased £306,000.
Notes reserve decreased £2,118,000.
Government securities unchanged.

The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability this week is 50.39 per cent; last week it was 53.36 per cent.

Paris, September 29.—The weekly statement of the Bank of France shows the following changes:

Notes in circulation increased 140,075,000 francs.

Treasury deposits decreased 3,375,000 francs.

General deposits increased 74,350,000 francs.

Gold in hand decreased 9,150,000 francs.

Silver in hand decreased 3,525,000 francs.

Bills discounted decreased 219,525,000 francs.

Advances decreased 2,150,000 francs.

Paris, September 29.—Three per cent rants 97 francs 31½ centimes for account. Exchange on London 25 francs 25 centimes for checks. Private rate of discount 2⅞ per cent.

Berlin, September 29.—Exchange on London 20 marks 43½ pfennigs for checks. Money for short term 6½ per cent. Private rate of discount 4¼ per cent.

London, September 29.—Bullion amounting to £100,000 was withdrawn from the Bank of England today for shipment to Turkey, £70,000 to South America, £200,000 to Egypt and £6,000 to Gibraltar.

London Stock Market.

London, September 29.—American securities were dull and featureless during the early trading today. At noon prices ranged from unchanged to ⅛ higher than yesterday's New York closing. After ruling dull and featureless, American securities advanced in the afternoon on Wall street support and closed firm.

Consols for money and account, 80⅛; bar silver steady at 25 13-16.

Money, 2@2½. Short bills, 3½@3⅝; three months bills, 3⅝@3¾.

Illinois Central, 135½.

Louisville and Nashville, 147½.

Southern Railway, 23¾.

Argo, Jester & Co.

New York, September 29.—After a little weakness around the opening the market started up once more under the influence of aggressive buying by the same interests that have given prices their support lately and all options were soon selling around the top for this movement. Private condition reports point to a loss of about 5 points for the month, and while this does not indicate a large crop, it by no means justifies the assertion that the crop is a disaster. Until frost has passed this crop will remain a conundrum and can surprise bulls or bears alike.

Spot markets do not follow the advances and the movement is sufficiently large to imply that producers as willing to sell around present prices. This, with the weakeged technical position of the market, is against any further advance at present, especially as the volume of hedge selling is certain to increase presently and add materially to the available supply of contracts. It looks like a good market to take profits on and wait for reaction.

Liverpool is due to open 3 up.

CORN PRICES DROP TO LOWEST OF SEASON

Wheat and Oats Also Tumbled---Much Long Wheat Liquidated.

Chicago, September 29.—Assurances that the corn crop everywhere was practically safe from danger of damage resulted today in the lowest prices of the season for that grain, and tumbled down quotations for wheat and oats. Net losses were 1½ to 1 5-8 to 1 3-4 in wheat, 1 to 1-4 in corn and 7-8@1c to 1 1-8c on oats. Provisions closed at 5@15 advance to 20c decline.

Much long wheat was liquidated at a time when the buying had been pretty well satisfied. There was a higher start, due to unexpected strength at Liverpool. The bulge, however, was the signal for important selling here, and the market was soon overloaded. Northwestern longs who bought during the North Dakota crop scare were said to be letting go. Reports of lighter shipments from the Argentine and India formed the basis of the early strength, but such consideration were lost sight of when stop loss orders were encountered, carrying down prices with only the faintest sort of rallies. The dominating influence was the weakness of corn and there was much short selling in consequence. December wheat ranged from 96 5-8 to 99 and closed weak at 96 3-8@96 3-4, a fall of 1 3-4 compared with last night.

Fine weather, prevailing and prospective, made the outlook rosy for the corn crop. Offerings in the pit exceeded the demand from the opening to the close, and prices suffered accordingly. The amount of the cereal that would now be seriously affected by frost was said to be of relatively slight importance. December sold from 49 3-8 to 50 5-8, and at the close was steady, with 49 1-2 as the final quotation. Cash corn was weak. No. 2 yellow closed at 52@52 1-4.

Oats gave way under moderate sales by miscellaneous longs and by a few large shorts. December fluctuated between 32 5-8 and 33 7-8, finishing 1@1 1-8 down, at 32 7-8.

The small packing for the week and season made hog products firm, except for some realizing, which caused ribs to close 20 lower to 2 1-2 higher, and lard 7 1-2 off to a shade gain. Pork wound up at an advance of 5 to 15c.

Providing a presentation for payment or salary for the Judges of Superior Courts of all Judicial Circuits, etc.

By his Excellency Joseph M. Brown Governor.

Atlanta, Ga., August 3, 1910.

Whereas, the General Assembly at its session, 1910, proposed an amendment to the Constitution of this State, as set forth in an Act, approved August 6th, 1910, to-wit:

AN ACT.

To be entitled an act to amend Paragraph 1 of Section 13 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Georgia, regulating the salaries of the Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts by providing for the payment from the County Treasuries of Chatham, Fulton and Richmond Counties to the Judges of the Superior Courts of the Circuits to which said Counties belong, and to the Judge of the Stone Mountain Circuit, or the Judge of such other circuit as may hereafter be required to regularly preside in Fulton Superior Court, of additional compensation, and to ratify, validate and confirm the original and amendatory acts of the General Assembly regulating the salaries of Judges of the Superior Courts of all judicial circuits of the state having therein a city with a population of not less than 54,000 inhabitants, according to the United States census of 1900, as heretofore enacted, and the act of the General Assembly regulating the compensation of Judges of the Superior Court for services rendered outside of their own circuits in those judicial circuits of the state having therein a population of not less than 75,000 inhabitants, according to the census of 1900.

Section 1. Be it hereby enacted by authority of the General Assembly of Georgia that Paragraph 1 of Section 13 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Georgia be amended by adding to such paragraph of said section the following proviso:

Provided, however, That the counties of Chatham, Fulton and Richmond shall pay from their respective county treasuries to the Superior Court Judges of the Circuit of which they are a part, and the county of Fulton to the Judge of the Stone Mountain circuit, or to the Judge of such other circuit as may hereafter be required to regularly preside therein, for additional services rendered in the Superior Courts of Fulton County, such sums as will with the salaries paid each Judge from the State Treasury make a salary of $5,000.00 per annum to each Judge; and said payments are declared to be a part of the Court expenses of such counties, such payments to be made to the Judges now in office as well as their successors.

The Act of the General Assembly of 1904 entitled "An act to regulate the salaries of Judges of the Superior Courts of all Judicial Circuits of this state having, or that may hereafter have, therein a city with a population of not less than 54,000, nor more than 75,000 inhabitants, and for other purposes," with the acts of the General Assembly of 1905 and 1906 amendatory thereof; and also the act of the General Assembly of 1908 entitled "An Act to regulate the compensation of Judges of the Superior Courts for services rendered outside of their own circuits in those judicial circuits of the state having therein a city of not less than 75,000 inhabitants, according to the census of 1900, and for other purposes," which acts provide for the payment from the treasuries of the counties containing said cities to the Judges aforesaid of a part of their salaries, are ratified, validated and confirmed as to the dates of said respective enactment.

Section 2. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the above and foregoing amendment has been agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house of the present General Assembly, it shall be the duty of the Governor and he is hereby directed to cause the same to be published in one or more newspapers in each Congressional district in this state, two months before the next general election; and the Governor of this state is further required and directed, after having said amendment so published as aforesaid, to submit the same to the people at the next general election for the ratification or rejection. The form of such submission shall be as follows, to-wit:

"For ratification of Amendments to Paragraph 1, Section 13, Article 6 of the Constitution."

"Against ratification of Amendment to Paragraph 1, Section 13, Article 6 of the Constitution."

Now, therefore, I, Joseph M. Brown, Governor of said State, do issue this, my proclamation, hereby declaring that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution is submitted for ratification or rejection to the voters of the State qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly at the general election to be held on Wednesday, October 5th, 1910.

JOSEPH M. BROWN, Governor.

By the Governor:
PHILIP COOK, Secretary of State.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Providing a presentation for City of Augusta to increase its indebtedness.

By His Excellency, Joseph M. Brown, Governor.

Atlanta, Ga., August 3, 1910.—Whereas, the General Assembly, at its session in 1909, proposed an amendment to the Constitution of this state as set forth in an Act approved August 16, 1909, to wit:

An act to amend Paragraph one of Section seven of Article seven of the Constitution of this State, so as to provide for allowing the City Council of Augusta, which owns both a power producing canal and waterworks, to increase its bonded indebtedness beyond the amount now allowed under said paragraph, under certain circumstances, for the purpose of flood protection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the general Assembly of the State of Georgia, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Paragraph one of Section seven of Article seven of the Constitution of this State is hereby amended by adding at the end of said paragraph the following words: "Except that the City Council of Augusta, from time to time, as necessary, for the purpose of protection against floods, may incur a bonded indebtedness upon its power producing canal and municipal waterworks, in addition to the debts hereinbefore in this paragraph allowed to be incurred, to an amount in the aggregate not exceeding fifty percentum of the combined value of such properties, the valuation of such properties to be fixed as may be prescribed by law, but said valuation not to exceed a figure five per cent, on which shall represent the net revenue per annum produced by the two such properties together at the time of said valuation, and such indebtedness not to be incurred except with the assent of two-thirds of the qualified voters of such city, at an election or elections for that purpose to be held as may be now, or may be hereafter, prescribed by law for the incurring of the new debts by the said City Council of Augusta, so that said paragraph, when amended, shall read as follows:

"PARAGRAPH 1. The debt hereafter incurred by any county, municipal corporation or political division of this State, except as in this Constitution provided for, shall not exceed seven per centum of the assessed value of all the taxable property therein, and no such county, municipality or division shall incur any new debt, except for a temporary loan or loans to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, not to exceed one-fifth of one percentum of the assessed value of taxable property therein, without the assent of two-thirds of the qualified voters thereof, at an election for that purpose, to be held as may be prescribed by law; but any city, the debt of which does not exceed seven percentum of the assessed value of the taxable property at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, may be authorized by law to increase, at any time, the amount of said debt, three percentum upon such assessed valuation; except that the City Council of Augusta, from time to time, as necessary, for the purpose of protection against floods, may incur a bonded indebtedness upon its power producing canal and municipal waterworks, in addition to the debts hereinbefore in this paragraph allowed to be incurred, to an amount in the aggregate not exceeding fifty percentum of the combined value of such properties, the valuation of such properties to be fixed as may be prescribed by law, but said valuation not to exceed a figure five per cent on which shall represent the net revenue per annum produced by the two properties together at the time of said valuation, and such indebtedness not to be incurred except with the assent of two-thirds of the qualified voters of such city, at an election or elections for that purpose to be held as may be now, or may be hereafter, prescribed by law for the incurring of new debts by the said City Council of Augusta."

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever the above proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the General Assembly, and the same has been entered on their journals, with the ayes and nays taken thereon, the Governor shall, and he is hereby authorized and instructed to cause said amendment to be published in at least two newspapers in each Congressional district in this State for the period of two months next preceding the time of holding the next general election.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the above proposed amendment shall be submitted for ratification or rejection to the electors of this State at the next general election to be held after publication as provided for in the second Section of this Act, in the several election districts of this State, at which election every person shall be qualified to vote who is entitled to vote

"TURN RASCALS OUT OF OFFICE"

tional democratic committee, that Murphy controls the situation. Out of four hundred and fifty delegates he controls, with Kings county led by John H. McCooey, of Brooklyn, and Erie led by William Fitzpatrick, of Buffalo, more than 200. Up-state leaders recognized tonight the hopelessness of effecting any coalition strong enough to oppose him with any show of success.

The problem that Mr. Murphy faces is one that needs all his caution, experience and judgment. He must find a candidate who will be strong enough to run at least an even race with Henry L. Stimson, backed by Theodore Roosevelt; who will command the support of democrats of all shades of opinion and who can win over the support of William Randolph Hearst.

Hearst Is a Factor.

The leaders all feel that with Mayor Gaynor eliminated from consideration as a candidate Mr. Hearst becomes once more a factor with whom to reckon. The editorial utterances of his morning newspaper today were interrupted here to mean that he is holding himself uncommitted. Undoubtedly there will be a strong effort made to win his cooperation.

Important meetings that may last until long after midnight are on in the committee on resolutions and the committee on permanent organization. There was a parade, in which Charles F. Murphy and the other Tammany braves marched at the head of the camp followers. All these things took time, and when the conferences began late tonight it seemed more than possible that the slate would not be written until tomorrow morning.

The candidates themselves are puzzled and tired. They ask the newspaper men eagerly for the latest information, and merely reiterate former estimates of strength. Representative William Sulzer says he is losing no strength. Representative James H. Havens is still sure he cannot lose. His manager said tonight that he would enter the convention tomorrow with the delegates to elect him safely pledged.

What Will Murphy Do?

Edward M. Shepard said everything he had heard today continued to encourage him, but laying aside all speculation the situation in short comes back to this—what will Murphy do?

It was generaly believed he would try his best to make good his promise to conciliate the up-state sentiment, but that if he found it impossible to consolidate that sentiment he would jam through his own preference.

In the event a man from New York city is the gubernatorial nominee, the name of Thomas W. Osborne, of Auburn, is most prominently mentioned for second place in accordance with the time-honored custom as an up-state man. Mr. Osborne's backers, however, are still conducting his fight for first place.

Except for the address of Alton B. Parker today the opening session of the convention was purely routine. Mr. Parker read his address from manuscrip in measured tones. He was greeted by scattered applause when he delivered a telling phrase. Mention of the old-time leaders, especially Tilden, Cleveland and Hill, brought cheers and the delegates showed interest in his criticism of the tariff, or his references to the increased cost of living and particularly his charges that the national administration had been inexcusably extravagant.

Cheered Attack on Roosevelt.

But the real enthusiasm of the day came when he laid aside his set speech and launched with energy into a bitter attack on executive interference in legislative and judicial public business and the ascendancy of Theodore Roosevelt in the late convention at Saratoga, which he declared had been achieved by the aid of federal officeholders in the face of insincere denunciation of machine rule and bosses.

At the conclusion of the keynote speech the committee on contested seats, permanent organization and resolutions were named and adjournment was taken until 1 o'clock tomorrow.

The committee on resolutions went into session late in the afternoon and deputized its deliberations on the platform to a subcommittee, which included Seymour Van Sant-Veerd, of Rensselaer, chairman of the full committee; Morgan O'Brien, New York; John B. Stanchfield, Chemung, and Norman E. Mack, Erie.

The consideration of the direct primary plank was begun as soon as the subcommittee went into session.

Parker's Keynote Speech.

Judge Parker, on assuming the chair, said in part:

Judge Parker's Speech.

"The democratic party stands confronted with the opportunity and the duty to render patriotic public service of the first magnitude. The fathers builded for us a government under the control of the people. Into the constitution they incorporated those great principles of liberty, the denial of which had been the cause and the justification of the revolution. They so divided the powers of government as to guard against executive usurpation; put it beyond the power of any save the people themselves to amend this constitution, and sat down to enjoy the blessings of a government on law, not of men.

"This was less than a century and a quarter ago. Today there are political prophets in other lands who predict for us a speedy coming of the dictator. There are in our beloved country advocates of the policy to gradually take from the people the home rule powers of the states and confer them upon the federal government. Others, still, more "progressive" would not await the action of the people, but would seize coveted powers whenever the passing whim or caprice of an executive shall suggest it. Indeed, a president of the United States has said in substance and effect, that if we fail to increase the federal power through executive action, through legislative and through judicial construction and interpretation of law, we show our impotence. On divers occasions he he fitted the deed to the word, and subsequently rejoiced in the applause of the unthinking.

Unrest Among the People.

"How comes this assault thus early in our national life upon the 'most wonderful instrument ever struck off at a given time by the brain and purpose of man?' How is it possible to gain followers in such a cause? The answer is, there is a great unrest among the people. And why this unrest? with the national wealth mounting higher and higher, with work for everyone, and the people all enjoying a greater measure of comfort than do the people of any other country? Partly, because the cost of living is mounting still more rapidly than income and wages. The salaried man, the wage-earner, the people with small incomes rather, whether from investments, farming or business, find it yearly more difficult to make both ends meet, let alone putting aside a little money to educate the children or provide for the declining years. While the dream of saving is passing, the story of vast increases in the national wealth and abnormal increase of individual fortunes is being daily recited.

The majority having been politically taught that government is responsible for good times, many of them have come now to wonder whether the machinery of government is not at present geared to enrich the few at the expense of the many.

Fortunes Wrung From People.

"The great bulk of the larger fortunes have been wrung from the people through the aid of direct legislation aided by non-enforcement of law. That is, through the tariff and the combinations to prevent competition and in restraint of trade, created for the purpose of securing from the public every dollar which the tariff statute made possible.

"The first tariff act was in 1789, and the average duties were 8½ per cent. Now the average is 50 per cent. The republican party is responsible for this increase, and for the thousands of millions of dollars that through it have been taken from the people to create the swollen fortunes that President Roosevelt denounced so vigorously. Strange, is it not, that he did not then suggest that the way to prevent their creation in the future was to reduce the tariff which made them possible?

"The republican platform of 1908 seemed to recognize this injunction. True, it did not in terms promise a revision of the tariff downward. President Taft, as the leader, while admitting that the tariff could be revised up as well as down, stated unequivocally that this promise meant that the average of duties should be lowered. And his construction of this intentionally ambiguous phrase was accepted by his party press and the platform speakers generally.

"Well, congress did convene in special session as promised, and did revise the tariff; but not downward as promised. In vain did President Taft plead with the senate to keep the party faith and to save him, as the head of the party, as well as of the government, from the humiliation of having his own party repudiate his personal assurance as to the meaning of the plank—aye, more, his pledge to the people as to what should be done under it, made in his capacity as chosen leader.

G. O. P. Machine Bound to Trusts.

"The republican national machine, however, would have none of it. They stood faithfully by the trusts, the corporations and the individuals who were tariff beneficiaries, and against the people. They did it in obedience to the demand of a corrupt national republican machine which has for years traded away the rights of the people in return for corporation money used to strengthen the machine and buy votes in doubtful congressional districts and in close states.

"Even the insurance companies were advised of the amount which should be taken from the widow's and orphans' fund for the benefit of the party once dominated by men of high ideals and honest purposes. So well understood was this practice, that it seems to have become regarded by the republican leaders as legitimate and proper in behalf of their party. On any other hypothesis it would be impossible to account for the well-known request of a president of the United States to Mr. Harriman—an official of a railroad subject to investigation and a measure of regulation by the federal government—to raise a quarter of a million dollars to be used in an election in which the president was interested (an occurrence not by any means isolated).

"Whatever of excuse may be offered, the ugly truth is that the republican national machine has received the moneys of the corporate and individual beneficiaries of the tariff, and in return have compelled congress to keep high the tariff rates, and their attorney generals to close their eyes to violations of law.

Turn the Rascals Out.

"In the light of all the testimony and of these emissaries, I submit that the jury of the people should find as a general verdict, 'That the failure of the executive and legislative branches of government, both state and federal, to protect the people from the special privilege hunters and graft seekers, is deeply rooted in a corrupt alliance between them and the republican political machines.' Upon that verdict but one judgment can be entered—that of eviction."

Bitter Attack on Roosevelt.

At the close of his prepared address, Judge Parker laid aside his manuscript and launched into a bitter attack on the methods by which Colonel Roosevelt and the progressives dominated the republican convention at Saratoga.

"That convention," he said, "has passed from the hands of an old organization into the hands of a new one. It was passed by the assistance of federal officeholders. Nearly 200 of them contributed to that majority. In vain was an appeal made to President Taft. The appeal was not heeded. Think of the disgrace of it. Free men not daring to vote according to their judgment and their conscience, because if they did there stood behind them the federal government saying, 'Your political life is at stake,' and it must not be forgotten that he who was responsible for this, only a few years ago, ostentatiously removed federal officeholder for daring to participate in a political fight."

Roosevelt's Steam Roller.

Referring to Colonel Roosevelt's speech for direct nominations, Judge Parker continued:

"And yet the temporary chairman, who made that speech, listened without protest to a resolution taking away from the delegates a right which they had exercised for fifty years, namely, the power to name their own representatives in the committees. And this resolution was passed in the face of cries of 'gang rule!'"

Judge Parker characterized Colonel Roosevelt as a "usurper" of the political control of the state, and called upon the delegates to deprive him of this power at the coming election.

The temporary chairman's speech occupied an hour.

After the transaction of routine business, the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock Friday afternoon.

WATER AVOIDED IN FIXING ROUTE

try, and there is no finer long cotton in the world this year than is grown along this new route. In many fields the stalks are so tall that they almost hide a man on horseback. Sea island is later than short cotton, and there will still be plenty of it in the field when the tourists go through. In fact, it is still blooming, and these blooms will make cotton even yet, unless there is an early frost for that section.

Gratified at Change.

Valdosta, Nashville and Willacoochee are gratified at the change, and the business men and motorists of those towns promise their full cooperation in getting the roads smoothed, for that is all they need. The inspection made on Wednesday showed no mud and no sand of consequence. Valdosta's board of trade car, an Oldsmobile, averaged 20 miles an hour, and it and an Oakland, a Maxwell and a Hudson often made 30 miles or more per hour.

And the maximum speed on the tour is but 16 miles an hour.

B. W. Bentley, a prominent business man and motorist of Valdosta, who was with Secretary C. C. Thomas and Frank Weldon on the trip, said:

"This is decidedly the best route from Valdosta to Waycross, and while it is 20 miles longer than the direct road through Homerville, and 10 miles longer than the Milltown route, far better time can be made going the longer road. Nothing short of a Noah's flood will give any trouble on the Nashville route, and that would put the roads of north Georgia out of commission.

Road Will be Ready.

"Coffee county is building a new road to connect Willacoochee with McDonald, and it is about all finished except the bridges. This new road will be ready by the middle of next month. Coffee county is putting her link in good shape, and the road from McDonald into Waycross is very good. This change in the route eliminates the worst link in the entire circuit, and substitutes a good road which is always negotiable. Then it takes the tourists through a fine farming country and through Nashville and Willacoochee, both of which are thriving towns."

Frank Weldon said: "I have traveled three routes between Valdosta and Waycross, and this last one is all right. The Homerville route is impossible except in dry weather. The Milltown route was possible only as a last resort, on account of the ford at Camp creek and another ford near Sandy Bottom. We wanted to go by Milltown, but the sand and the water make that route impracticable. I was told that Camp creek is soon to be bridged. When that is done and the creek at Sandy Bottom is bridged and a few miles of road is clayed, the Milltown road will be possible, but we could not ask tourists to go that way now, when we have found a route which is far superior, presents no difficulties at all and is only a few miles longer.

Colquitt Is Busy.

Moultrie, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Colquitt county has put her entire force to work on her link in the round-the-state tour. A bridge is being made west of Funston, on the road to Camilla. That road is also being clayed. Another gang is at work on the 3-mile gap north of Moultrie. That road will be completed to connect with Worth county's new road. This will give a fine road all the way from Sylvester to Moultrie. Colquitt is intensely interested in this tour and the highway, and her citizens are doing all they can to provide a road which will reflect credit on the county.

C. W. Pidcock has entered his Carter car in the tour. Mr. Pidcock is president of the Georgia Northern railway, and is one of the strongest friends of road improvement in the state. He is also deeply interested in the development of this section of the state.

This makes the third car from Moultrie, and there will be several more from here.

Macon Cars in Tour.

Macon, Ga., September 29.—(Special.) Vice President Randolph Jaques of the Macon Automobile Club, said today that there will be a number of entries from here in the round-the-state tour. He is just getting over an attack of typhoid fever, and if his physician will consent, intends to put in a car himself. Messrs. Henry Lamar, Emory Winship, John Shinholser and Willingham & Wheeler are among others who have announced their intention to go in the tour. A great deal of inferest is being taken in the event here, especially since the Velie made such a fine record last week, and demonstrated that the roads are all right.

Real Estate Pointers

Ivy street is well located for development. Some day it will be taken up, the bumps knocked off, permanent grade established, smooth pavement laid—and there's a street that will amount to something.

Why not plant a little money on Stewart avenue? A long, straight street that opens up a big country territory, and is growing every day.

The new location of the river line cars, out Simpson and Ashby streets, has opened up some virgin territory for the trader. Values are low and enhancement can be expected.

DISEASES OF MEN

DR. WM. M. BAIRD.

If I have some decided and original views on these diseases it is because I have been continuously in the work for 33 years, and for 25 years have devoted my whole time to these difficult and delicate cases.

I believe that many cases of stricture may be cured with less harsh treatment than they often receive. I believe this because I have demonstrated it again and again.

I believe that Syphilis needs not only the proper remedies, but careful, intelligent methods and attention to detail in order to cure and cure permanently.

I believe that Chronic Gonorrhoea causes more physical wrecks than any other diseases. I believe this because I know. I believe that nothing needs more scientific methods in order to cure, and the man who suffers from it knows, too, that I am right.

I believe in straightforward advertising and honest business methods, combined with conscientious treatment, and if you are in need of advice, and will appreciate that kind of service, I will take pleasure in examining you free of charge.

Office hours: 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.; Sunday, 10 to 1.

My booklets, "Diseases of Men" and "Health Essays," sent sealed and in plain wrapper on request.

I have been practicing in Atlanta longer than any advertising specialist here or any firm of advertising specialists. Any statements to the contrary are unequivocally false.
